

A volume of George Eliot's poems is in press.

Dr. Kenyon, counsel for Arthur Orton, the Tichborne claimant, has been formally expelled from the mess of the Oxford Circuit to which he belongs.

Among Dr. Livingstone's effects were found a great many letters bearing the dates of 1869-70-71, addressed to Sir Roderick Murchison, Sir Henry Rawlinson, and others, which had never been sent to those gentlemen. There were also found the Doctor's favorite gold-banded pen, and Mr. Stanley's card.

Dr. Charles Mackay is preparing for the press a work entitled "The Gaelic Etymology of the Languages of Western Europe and more especially of the English and Lowland Scotch, and their Cant, Slang, and Colloquial Dialects." It will be dedicated, by permission, to the Prince of Wales.

Sir Garnet Wlesley has stepped over the heads of 167 seniors to the rank of Major General. The same gazette that announces Sir Garnet Wlesley's promotion, also gives notification of that of Col. MacLagan, Royal (late Bengal) Engineers. Major Gen. MacLagan has superseded 235 seniors.

A German saloon keeper in Millersburg says: "Ven i goes to mine bet i sleeps not good, i dreams in mine head dat i hears dem vemens brayin' and singing in mine ears. Dot bothers me so i got right straight up and walk on de floor and take anuder glass of beer."

The annual report of the Common Superior, Grammar, and Training and Model Schools in New Brunswick, for the year 1873, shows that the education of that Province has advanced during the past two years as never before. This is matter for congratulation, especially in the presence of the difficulties which have had to be overcome.

As an instance of the effect of heat and cold in expanding and contracting the iron of the dome of the national Capitol, it is stated that the colossal statue surmounting it inclines four and a half inches to the west in the forenoon, and the same distance to the east in the afternoon. This fact has been ascertained by fixing a plumb line to the statue and dropping it to the rotunda below.

According to Roohard, a French veterinary surgeon, a simple method of preventing flies from annoying horses consists in painting the inside of the ears, or any other part especially troubled, with a few drops of empyreumatic oil of juniper. It is said that the odor of this substance is unendurable to flies, and that they will keep at a distance from the parts so anointed. If this treatment should accomplish the alleged result, it may perhaps be applicable in repelling mosquitoes.

BREAKFAST.—Epps's Cocoa.—"GREATLY AND COMFORTING."—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws governing the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills."—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labelled—"James Epps & Co., Homeopathic Chemists, London."
