London West is following in the footsteps of the city regarding the license question, only on a little more radical scale. At the meeting of the Council last evening a petition was received from Rev. W. J. McDonagh, and signed by about 170 rate-payers, asking that a bylaw be submitted to the people at the next municipal elections, providing for the abolition of the two licenses in the village. The bylaw was read and passed a second time by the Council and a vote will be taken as requested. The members also discussed the electric light question, but did nothing more than report progress. Those present were Reeve Lacey, Councilors Duff, Scarrow, Spence, Brodie and Clerk Minton.

A Musicale at Sarnia.

The Sarnia Sun speaks of a recital by Mrs. Moore as follows, those taking part being Misses Julia Poussette, Lucy Poussette, Pattie Bucke, Lena Symington, Quita Moore and Mrs. Moore: "On Wednesday evening Mrs. Moore, of London, who has a number of pupils here in vocal and instrumental music, gave with some of her pupils a soiree musicale at the house of Mrs. F. G. Bucke, Vidal street, and there was a large attendance of ladies and gentlemen of the town. The musicale was a great success, and without speaking particularly of others who took part in it the renditions of Mrs. Moore, both vocal and instrumental, were very highly appreciated. The selection given were Meyriller's "Hunting Scene, Micholies' "Forge in the Forest," and D. Lacey's "Tel-el-Kobir." Considering the musicians' limited paraphernalia ties were very creditably rendered. Miss Hiscott and Mr. Percy Carrol contributed a couple of duets, Gabressi, "Fisherman" and Gade's "Across the Still Lagoon," which were accorded well-merited applause. Miss Hiscott also sang Pinsuri's "Fisherman" and Gade's "Across the Still Lagoon," which were accorded well-merited applause. Miss Hiscott also sang Pinsuri's "Tis I," in which her voice was heard to good advantage, but in his solo number, "The Anchor's Weighed," Mr. Carroll was not quite so successful. Miss Jennie Holman in her two piano selections gave evidence of careful training and artistic appreciation quite unusual in one so young.
