Disaster by the Watersport.

VIENNA, Aug. 11.—The watersport of Saturday committed terrible ravages in Styria. The town of Goetsing was nearly ruined, and hundreds narrowly escaped with their lives. Nineteen villages were inundated, and the whole country was devastated. Many ewes and lambs perished, and the crops were ruined. At least nine persons were drowned.

A Ghastly Celebration.

AUCKLAND, N. Z., Aug. 11.—According to the latest advice from Apia order has been completely restored in Samoa. As a result of a conference between the foreign consuls and the captains of the foreign warships, Mutais has departed to the Union Islands aboard the German man-of-war Spierker. The supporters of Malietoa celebrated their victory by carrying to Apia in triumph the heads of their fallen enemies.

No International Strike.

ZURICH, Aug. 11.—The International Socialists' Congress yesterday rejected a resolution offered by Norwegian delegates that a universal strike be started immediately after a war is declared. The resolution was supported by representatives of only four nations, while the representatives of fourteen nations voted against it. A Belgian amendment in favor of aiming to suppress militarism by withholding supplies was adopted.

Austria Alarmed.

VIENNA, Aug. 11.—An official statement issued by the sanitary council of Austria declares that the condition of the country with regard to cholera is very precarious. Much more serious than it was in 1892. The home office has sent a circular to Government officials throughout the country enjoining the strictest precautions. Cholera has broken out among the sailors, mostly Italians and Croatians, building a railway at Maribor, on the Galician frontier. Thirty-five have died. One hundred have died in the direction of their wages without waiting for their wages. Seven cases of cholera and two deaths have occurred at Comau.

Russia Repudiates Gold.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 11.—The Moscow Vedomosti says that the Imperial Council, assembled in extraordinary session, has promulgated the following ukase: "In view of the stringency of gold in the money market, and in view of the critical state of affairs in financial circles in general, it is ordered that hereafter no contracts in any money or other transaction shall be held to be legal in which the basis of future payment shall be gold coin or certificate, to the exclusion of all other specie or notes for specie. "Nor shall it make any difference in case one of the contracting parties pays a premium now in order to compensate for the future payment of him of gold. "The Ministry of Finance shall be the final judge of all such cases in which the parties may contest their liability to the operations of this new law, and is hereby empowered to investigate any and all contracts."

FUEL FOR FLAMES.

THE STATE OF TRADE

As Described by Bradstreet's Weekly Review.

Nearly a Million Wage-Earners Idle as a Result of the Depression.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Bradstreet's says: The irrational but widespread hoarding of currency has compelled jobbers and manufacturers in many instances to do business more nearly than ever on a cash basis. This has resulted in a further restriction of trade throughout the country, accompanied by such signs of depression as increased difficulty in disposing of commercial paper, a still greater scarcity of currency at larger centers and a shut-down movement among industrial establishments. The latter, together with curtailment of forces in that and in commercial lines, points to be enforced idleness of nearly 1,000,000 wage-earners within the past two months as compared with not more than 400,000 at the close of 1892, the previous year of great business depression.

The week's bank clearings total is the smallest of recent years—$802,600,000, 17 per cent. less than last week, and 20 per cent. less than in the same week in 1892. The gross railroad earnings for July amount to $41,000,000—a decrease of about 4 per cent. as compared with July last year.

European supplies of wheat have begun to decrease rapidly, amounting to about 1,200,000 bushels last week, and the exports of domestic wheat continue heavy for this period—5,018,000 bushels for the week, against 5,022,000 bushels last week, and 4,148,000 bushels in the week a year ago. Mercantile failures throughout the United States for the week number 474, against 459 last week, and as compared with 188, 213 and 148 in like weeks in three preceding years.

There were 25 failures in the Canadian Dominion this week, compared with 43 last week and 23 one year ago.
