POLYGAMISTS

Should be Barred From Holding Office So the M. E. Conference Says.

Chicago, May 25 .- At Thursday's session of the Episcopal Methodist conference, Dr. J. M. King submitted a memorial to congress asking for the passage of an amendment to the constitution of the United States disfranchising persons practicing polygamy, and barring them from the privilege of holding public office. It was read and adopted without discussion.

A scheme to have all the board of bishops direct the affairs of the Methodist Sisterhood of Deaconesses was reported to the committee having that bureau's affairs in charge as a meas-ure calculated to pacify the warring elements in the struggle between those affiliated with the homes under the Woman's Home Missionary Society and connected with the independent order of which the Chicago home is the most important station. The committee is said to be practically unanimous for adoption.

PASSENGERS DELAYED

Rochester, N. Y., May 25.-The excursion steamer Cambria, bound from Toronto to Oswego, was forced to stop when a few miles out of Toronto yesterday, on account of an accident to her machinery. In a short time she started chead again, and reached Carlotte last night, where her load of 200 passengers were dischanged. A special train was made up and the excursionists sent on to Oswego, where they will take train for New York.

DROWNED. Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 25.-Clayton Ford Stanley, the 7-year-old son of Arthur Stanley, of the firm of Stanley & Paterson, electrical plies, New York, was drowned in a pool on his father's country place at Northerwood, Duchess county, The boy went out in a rowboat with his pet dog. He stood up and threw the dog overboard to see it swim ashore, as he had often done be-fore. Then he lost his balance and fell out of the boat, being drowned before assistance could reach him. Samuel B. Coleman, of Oxford Milks. Ont., while fishing in the Rideau River on Thursday was drowned. How the accident happened is not the next day.

Warrenton, Thursday, May 24. - Op- | from the force that crossed the Inerations have been pushed forward 80 miles, one of Gen. Hunter's brigades having occupied Vryburg last night. Considering the difficulties of the road, this is a remarkable achievement for a mixed force, short of rations, making forced marches. Water is scarce. Some portions of the brigade covered eighteen miles without a break.

Gen. Hunter personally goes to Vryburg today by train.

NEARING THE VAAL. Vrede Fort, Thursday, May 24. - The British columns, after an unopposed march, reached the Vrede Fort road at noon today, and are now only two marches from the Vaal River.

ROBERTS DELAYED. London, Friday, May 25, 3:35 p.m .-Lord Roberts' advance is delayed at the Rhenoster River for a day or two by the depth of the stream, which is not fordable. The banks, which are precipitous, are forty feet high. A pontoon and temporary bridge constructions are under way. The railway has not been damaged to any great extent between Kroonstad and the Rhenoster. The Transvaalers have OFFENDED THE FREE STATERS by destroying their splendid bridges when retiring to Kroonstad. They re-frained from doing this on the retreat to the Rhenoster, but now they are destroving the railroad and bridges almost completely north of the Rhenos-

ter. The British troops are in the form of a crescent, with horns thirty miles apart, with General French's cavalry on the left within 23 miles of the Vaal, and Gen. Ian Ham ilton's mounted men on the right within 30 miles of the Vaal. The center of the crescent is about forty miles from the Vaal. Seventy or eighty miles to the left Lord Methuen is advancing up the Vaal. Boer telegrams say that 3,000 British, with ten guns, are at Vrede Fort, which i close to the Vaal and close to Parys.

BOLTING LIKE HARES. One correspondent refers to the advance as a promenade. The other describes it as a Boer hunt. The Free Staters are pictured as "bolting like hares" at the first sight of the British. The latter, according to one writer, do not even find women and children, as the fleeing farmers take their families with them. The Boer rear guard was composed of Russians, to whom was committed the task of destroying the bridges. They also looted freely.

A MYSTERY. What the Boers are doing is an absolute mystery. The embargo upon news out of Pretoria for the last 24 hours has been incomplete. Such information as the correspondents at Lorenzo Marquez furnish did not illuminate the Boer designs and disposition further than that the movement ward Lydenburg continues, and that a referendum on the question of continuing the war is going on among the Boer fighting men. FOOD AT MAFEKING. As the railway is now open north of Mafeking, an abundance of provisions is entering the town, plenty of flour and meat and few luxuries. The telegraph messages will probably from Mafeking direct over the northern route in a day or two.

FRENCH'S ADVANCE. London, May 24-2:05 p.m.-Gen. French has reached Prospect Station, about five miles north of Rhenoster River. The Boers are retreating straight to the Vaal. A dispatch from Rhenoster, dated Wednesday, May 23, 7:45 p.m., says: "The general opinion is that we will arrive at Pretoria as fast as we can march, though the Boers announced to all the countryside that they intended to fight to the death." Gen. Ian Hamilton is co-operating in the advance on the right; thus Lord presumably, is a few Roberts, who, miles behind Gen. French, will reach the Vaal before the end of the week. Natives report that the Boers have buried two guns in the Rhenoster A wild war rumor on the stock exchange today to the effect that the Mafeking relief force had marched to Johannesburg, surprised the Boers there and captured the town, sufficed to affect a sharp spurt in Kaffirs.

Buller

ENTERS THE TRANSVAAL.

London, May 24-2 p.m.-In Natal, Gen. Buller's forces have crossed into the Transvaal near Ingogo, but are still held at bay at Laing's Nek, where the Boers are entrenching themselves. With the exception of this pass Natal is clear of Boers. They have a big gun posted, but it is doubtful if they will be able to hold the position when threatened by a flanking movement corps with the Boers is disgusted with their conduct, and has requested the czar to recall it. In Natal, Gen. Dartnell's volunteers occupied Mount Prospect on Monday. Lord Dundonald's cavalry is at Firm-stones, near Ingogo. His infantry stones, near Ingogo. His infantry rests at Schoenshoogte. These names are full of fateful memory in the first Boer war. They face Laing's Nek, where the Boens, through the range glasses of the British are occasionally visible. In the march across the Biggarsberg all the farms, except one, were found vacant. A temporary bridge has been finished at Waschbank. Trains now go to Dundee. Gen. Buller said that the best way to celebrate the Queen's birthday was to repair the railway to Newcastle, and every man was put to work. Earl De la Warr, who was supposed to have been captured at the time of the disaster that befel the squadron of Bethune's Horse, contrived to escape. He lay all night with a wounded leg

A special dispatch from Newcastle, Natal, says the Russian ambulance

PRETORIA REPORTS. Pretoria, Wednesday, May 23.-An official bulletin issued here says: "Sixty British cavalry came into collision on May 20 with 80 of the Swaziland commando at Scheeper's Nek. The as the champion beer drinker of New York is dead. He was Wm. Amend, fighting lasted an hour. The British 43 years of age, and had been an inlost 27 killed, 25 wounded and 11 were mate of Bellevue Hospital since April taken prisoners. Twenty-five horses, two Maxims and a quantity of ammunition were also captured. The federals lost one killed and one wounded. They assisted to remove the wounded and bury the dead "The advance guard at Heilbron retired on the main body at the northern Ingogo River in 1881. It is reported that fighting occurred at Botha's Nek yesterday. Chris Botha, brother of the commander-in-chief, has been appointed assistant to the commander-in-chief and has given great satisfaction. He has revived the fighting spirit in many of the federals. In an ambush between Nquatu and Mount Prospect eight British were killed and thirteen wounded. The first train north entered Mafeing May 22, and the first train south is expected next week. It is said that the relief of Mafeking was due to a blunder of one of the federal officers, by which Gen. Delarey was foiled in his plan to cut off the relief force after driving them away from the Molopo

It is added that the federals have resolved to make a determined defense of the city of Johannesburg. Klimke. the state mining engineer, has been given six months' leave of absence, presumably for protesting against the proposition to blow up the mines.

KRUGER DEFIANT. Cape Town, May 25 .- President Kruger, it is announced, has issued a proclamation, saying he will defend Jo-hannesburg, and calling up all the Boers to fight to the bitter end. TRANSVAAL BANK SUSPENDS

GOLD PAYMENTS. The Transvaal National Bank has suspended gold payments under authorization from the government requiring the acceptance of bank notes. The institution has large assets, apparently in London. One hundred and fifty thousand pounds were seized at Cape Town and £25,000 at Durban. Mr. Lucan, chairman of the London committee of the bank, says: "The Transvaal Government is laying hands upon every cunce of gold it can find in the country. The government has nothing to lose and everything to gain thereby. Financial circles here are interested in many indirect ways, especially as to whether the Trans-vaal's I. O. U.'s will be redeemed. Bar gold to the amount of £75,000 has been conveyed from Pretoria to Lorenzo Marquez. State Secretary Reitz traveled on the same train. Cecil Rhodes, Alfred Beit and Julius Weinher, with other South African mining millionaires, are about to develop a gigantic mining enterprise in German West Africa. WHAT STEAD SAYS.

London, May 24-6:52 p.m,—At a "stop-the-war" meeting in London this afternoon, Wm. Stead remarked that the Boer delegates, now in the United States, told him they were prepared to accept peace on any terms compatible with independence, and asked if it was any good attempting to see Lord Salisbury, to which Mr. Stead said he replied it was useless to do so unless they were prepared to surrender their independence, so the delegates proceeded to America, "where they have met with coldness in officialdom."

The Princess of Wales, at Kensington this afternoon, opened the great national bazar in aid of sufferers from the war. The magnitude of the present undertaking, which lasts three days, quite eclipses the similar affair held in June of last year in aid of the Charing Cross Hospital. From the Queen down, the best people are co-operating in the work, and the stalls are attended by titled personages and the elite of London society. Emperor William of Germany has shown his sympathy for the war sufferers by contributing to the bazar some Royal Dresden china and engravings of pictures, painted by his majesty, bearing the imperial signature, and inscribed "For the national bazar, 1900," by the emperor himself. He also sent a number of his own photographs, signed, and bearing a brief sentence in German. The bazar, containing upwards of 70 stalls, representing most of the regiments now on service in South Africa, is arranged in streets, and forms an immense emporium. The Princess of Wales, after making a tour of the bazar, officiated as a sales woman for some time at the Household Cavalry stall. The naval stall is filled with models of naval implements, relics of the siege of Ladysmith and books signed by Kipling.

7 QUARTS A DAY

Guzzling Capabilities of New York's Champion Beer Drinker, Who Has Just Died.

7, 1899. For 21 years, up to the time he entered Bellevue he had never slept in a bed. He drank on an average seven quarts of beer a day. He told Dr. Dougherty that his weight increased from 180 to 460 pounds. said that he was afraid to go to bed, fearing that he would die, so he slept
