THREE PRISONERS ESCAPE FROM MONTREAL JAIL

MONTREAL, May 31 .- Joseph Le-Pine, Raoul St. Jean and Harry Dupont, named on a burglary charge and the detention on a charge of selling nonds to police officials, escaped from custody this morning. The three men occupied a long cell at detective eadquarters. They unscrewed bars over a window, with, it is believed, a nickel, and making their mattress rope, slid down it to the street. The men squeezed through a hole nine inches by twelve.

CONSTRUCTION CORPS A BODY OF EXPERTS

[Special to The Advertiser.] ST. JOHN, N.B., May 31.—Mr. Geo. Bury, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, inspected the Canadian Pacific Railway, inspected the Canadian Overseas Railway Construction Corps here today, and afterwards atended their field manoeuvres. Later in the day he visited their camp and dined with the officers at their mess. Mr. Bury expressed himself as more sed at the fitness of the corps. They are above the average in physique, are n splendid health, under good discioline, and everyone of them most eager to serve the Empire.

that the western section of the province will be called on to raise more men and units for overseas service. No. 1 military district, which has its head-quarters here, has met every call so far. It has, Indeed, more than met them. It has, Indeed, more than met them. The fact that, despite special drafts, the two infantry battalions here are again practically up to strength, is taken as an indication of the patriotic spirit throughout the district.

Of course orders for the mobilization will be raised here. Both artillery and cavalry are popular branches of the service, and it almost seems easier to recruit them than infantry battalions. This and the fact that there are many converted that there are many on the district who would seem easier.

The response of Western Ontario to date has strengthened this belief, and spirit throughout the district.

Of course, orders for the mobilization of new battalions or units come from it would come as no surprise to see the artillery and mounted rifles mobilized artillery and mounted rifles mobilized
