A Buttonless Eden is Coming. From the London Mail.

There was intense excitement in bachelor circles recently when the bachelor circles recently when the news of the approaching arrival of Mr. Porter, of California, without a button to his clothes, became gener-ally known. Mr. Porter believes that we shall be better and happier men without our buttons. It is possible that an invention like Mr. Porter's Gulph, Ont., August 31.—The base ball match this afternoon between the Boston Bloomer Girls and the Maple Leafs drew a fair-sized crowd. The Leafs drew if feated the girls by a score of 16 to 4, al-though the latter worked hard. The fea-tures of the game were the fielding of the visitors, second base, centre field and short stop, and their pitcher's good work in the box. Hord BALL.
