In his criticism of the Rt. Hon. Reginald J. McKenna, First Lord of the Admiralty, Lord Beresford was most outspoken. He referred, specially, to the action of that body in refusing to grant the Navy League of British Columbia the use of H. M. S. Egeria for the training of the young men of the west in the seafaring life. He declared hotly that it was a crying shame that, for the sake of a few dollars, the Admiralty should auction off that vessel, rather than allowing the League to put it to the splendid use proposed.

Included in the party which enjoyed the sport which Cowichan Lake affords were the Duke of Sutherland, Lord Desborough, the Marquis of Stafford, Lord Castlereagh, Lady Castlereagh, Lord Beresford, Miss Beresford, Messrs, W. Simpson, W. H. Hayward, M. P. P., R. M. Marpole, vice-president of the E. & N. railway. The visitors were directed, after having tried their luck with the trout, on a short automobile tour of the island by Messrs. Hayward and Marpole and expressed themselves as delighted with what they were able to see of the Cowichan district and of the more northerly sections. Lord Newton, who also is visiting Victoria for a few days, while preferring not to commit himself on any of the political issues which have been before or are likely to arise in Canada, stated that in his tour of the Dominion, the first that he had taken, he had been delighted to find his expectations more than realized. Canada had been so much talked of that he was led to look for ward to a great deal and he felt that he was putting his opinion stronger than he could any other way when saying that he wished his material interests here were more substantial than was the case. With the great prairie country of the middle west scarcely scratched and with every other province possessing resources of untold wealth, it was impossible to form any opinion as to the possibilities of the future. The west quite apparently, was but in her infan-

Like the majority of Englishmen, Lord Newton is a devoted desciple of outdoor sport. On his arrival here he was in formed that there could not be a better opportunity for the obtaining of salmon fishing, and forthwith he put together his fishing tackle and went in search of the spring and cohoe which are now running in the straits. He was successful in landing several. Naturally, his enthusiasm has been fanned by this triumph, and it is probable that, before leaving, he will make a raid on some of the trout of the island's rivers

NO MODELS WILL BE SOLD DURING THESE HOURS

As the clock strikes three tomorrow afternoon, our Three French Salons will be opened with a display of the loveliest imported Evening Gowns, Dresses, Opera Cloaks and Tunics that has ever been assembled under one roof.

Our department of Evening Gowns has shown much growth this season and there is much here of an unusual nature that will interest ladies who follow in the footsteps of Fashion.

The display is truly matchless, representing as it does, the last word in fashion from such artistes as Poret, Paquin and Drescoll and others equally famed for their original and fascinating style conceptions. Copies and adaptations of the most elegant costumes ever brought to the West are here for our townswomen, which will be seen to great advantage on models tomorrow afternoon.

AS TO PRICES:

With most ladies and misses, the price is a determining factor. We realize this fully, and when making our purchases we took exceptional care to possess ourselves of exclusive and elaborate models at prices that we knew full well would meet with the approval of Victoria ladies. For instance, you will find Evening Dresses here at $12.50, $15.00, $25.00 and a beautiful line at $27.50, $30.00 and $35.00. Opera Cloaks in the most exquisite shades at prices starting from $20. The new Parisienne Tunics, perfectly glorious, at $25 and $35, for which other houses ask $40. If $25 or $35 is beyond your means, then we can suit you at $12:75. Afternoon and Restaurant Dresses in velvet or the delicate new light weight cloths, in shades and styles to suit the most exacting.

In conclusion we would say that prices are plainly marked, and they are adhered to strictly. There is no fluctuation, just one price to all, and that prices guaranteed to be the lowest possible for the high value you receive-to this adherence to prices we owe our success in business.
