THE MOTHERS OF MEN.

The bravest battle that ever was fought! Shall I tell you where and when? On the maps of the world you will find it not— 'Tis fought by the mothers of men.

Nay, not with cannon or battle shot, With sword or nobler pen! Nay, not with eloquent words or thought From mouths of wonderful men.

But deep in a walled-up woman's heart— Of woman that would not yield, But bravely, silently, bore her part— Lo, there is that battlefield!

No marshalling troop, no bivouac song, No banner to gleam and wave; But oh! these battles, they last From babyhood to the grave.

Oh, ye with banners and battle shot, And soldiers to shout and praise! I tell you the kingliest victories fought Were fought in these silent ways.

Oh, spotless woman in a world of shame; With splendid and silent scorn, Go back to God as white as you came— The kingliest warrior born!

—Joaquin Miller.
