of snow storms, there have been only six days in which the whole train of passenger cars has not run through the whole distance between Boston and Worcester, and only eighteen days in which the whole four trips per day have not been regularly performed.

The Editor of the Standard is appointed Agent for the NEW YORK ALBION; and for the EMIGRANT AND OLD COUNTRYMAN. As several of his friends in the Country have been furnished with specimens of the latter paper, he requests they may be returned with directions how such as are wanted should be addressed. Advice is received from Dr. Bartlett that the E. & O. C. has been forwarded to J. C. and that for T. M.D. B. may be looked for in course.

On our first page will be found a condensed view of all the Rail Roads in England.

[Inserted by order of the Presbytery.]

The Presbytery of St. John have suspended the Rev. DAVID SYME, their Provincial Missionary, from the discharge of his pastoral functions.

March 10, 1836.

Mr. Everson.

Sir,—As you will no doubt be duly notified by the Moderator of the Presbytery, of the Rev. Mr. SYME's suspension by that Reverend Body on Thursday last, I beg that you will be kind enough to inform the Public at the same time, that that Gentleman has protested against the sentence, and appealed to the first Synod.

Yours, &c. L.

BY AUTHORITY.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

Frequent applications have been made for Licences to solemnize Marriage by persons whose Testimonials have not been considered sufficient to entitle them to such Licence, the following regulation are published by order of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor in Council, for the information of all concerned; and to which all applicants for Licences in future are required strictly to adhere.

1. The applications to be accompanied by certificates, duly authenticated, showing that a meeting House has been erected and exclusively set apart for the celebration of divine worship, by a congregation of Dissenters; and also showing in what particular Parish or place such meeting House is situated.

2. The applicant must produce proof that he has taken the Oaths by law required; that he has been regularly ordained according to the Forms and Usages of the Denomination of Christians to which he belongs; that he has been duly elected and chosen by that congregation as their minister; that he is entirely devoted to his spiritual charge and pursues no secular calling whatever; and that no part of his support or means of subsistence is derived therefrom, and must also set forth particularly the manner of his election or appointment by his Congregation.

3. All certificates, authenticating the above facts, must be signed by three or more substantial Householders or Freeholders, and in all cases where the applicant succeeds another Minister in the charge of any Congregation, such fact must be stated.

Secretary's Office, 5th March, 1836.

CAUTION.

I forbid all Persons paying any apprentice of mine Pilgrage or trusting any one, on my account after this date without a written order from me.
