The demand for light stockers from English countries good, and prices range from 21s. to 31s. per pound. Feeders were in such good demand, still a few sales were made at prices ranging from 3s. to 31s. per pound. At London the Christmas trade has been a quiet one, and also prices. Good to heavy veers sell from $4 75 to $5 25 per cwt. Prices ran up to 4c. and 2c. for choice Christmas.

Dear Sir, - I have read one of your "Ladies Men," and your "The Thimble" as names are comfortable. I think she will be as before doing so I could not give at the busy day, covered up pleasure in recommending them to (Signed)
 your little hands to my friend, Mrs.
 I have referred her to you and possibly a great benefit to me and my family now to take my leave, but I should like more as I had already tried it so heartily before, but your Thimble has any one collected like myself.
 MRS. HARRIET DOANE.
