

"WHAT SHALL I DO WITH JESUS?"

"What shall I do with Jesus."—MATT. xxvii. 22.

GEORGE TAYLOR.

W. H. DOANE.

1 "What shall I do with Je-sus?" Said Pi-late, on his throne; When Christ, so meek and low - ly, Stood friendless and a - lone. "I'll wash my hands of Je - sus; His blood be not on me! Go, cru - ci - fy your Je - sus, And set the guilt - y free."

2 "What shall I do with Jesus?"
The question comes again;
It echoes down the ages,
And through the hearts of men.
Oh, brother, look on Jesus;
Those pleading eyes ask thee,
What part hast thou in Jesus,
Who died on Calvary?

3 What will you do with Jesus?
Oh throbbing bosom, say;
Will you embrace this Jesus,
Or coldly turn away?

Oh, may His love o'ercome thee
As it hath conquered me;
Come, give yourself to Jesus,
And he will care for thee.

4 Oh, when the King of glory
Shall call up all His own;
And all the hosts assemble
Around the great white throne;
What hast thou done with Jesus?
The Lord shall ask of thee:
Come, now! prepare thine answer!
What shall thine answer be?
