

JAPANESE NUMBER

SUNSHINE

Vol. XX.

MONTREAL

No. 2. 1915

FUJI-SAN REFLECTED IN LAKE SHOJI.

Fuji-san, one of the world's most famous mountain-peaks and the sacred mountain of Japan, rises more than 12,000 feet above sea-level and is visible from no fewer than thirteen provinces. It is an apparently extinct volcano; the crater is 500 feet deep.

Copyright Underwood & Underwood, New York.