From Miss Blackmore.

KARUIZAWA, Aug. 11th, 1897.

Early in this month Miss Hart and I went on a little trip to Nagano and Uyeda for the double purpose of holding women's meetings at those places, and also of seeing as much as possible of Nagano District, and gaining as much definite information as we could respecting the best opening for work in this province.

We intended, if it seemed best, to go on as far as Matsumoto, but finding that we could not reach that city without walking about thirty miles over the mountains, and also
