

I have long delayed writing to you on account of not being able to obtain a Canada note. The enclosed note is the best I can do for you,—if it will answer your purpose, please give me credit for the fifth volume of the Witness for 1850.

The good cause of our blessed Redeemer, is, we trust, gaining ground. I know but little what others are doing, only as I read the accounts published. There have been, I believe, some eighty additions to the cause within the bounds of my labours since the close of our yearly meetings in Sept. To the Lord be all the praise. I am not able to hold meetings of days often. But some others are engaged, and much is being done. The churches also are being strengthened, and we trust are growing in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour.

Go on, my brother. Plead the cause of the dear Redeemer, and “when the Chief Shepherd shall appear, you will receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.”

Yours in the Lord,

A. B. GREEN.

We formerly heard occasionally from our zealous brother A. B. G., but recently the telegraph line seems to have broken at some unfortunate point. Please send yourself, brother Green, over to Oshawa as often as possible in a letter. Stir up others, also, to accompany or follow. In this country we not only “covet” good “gifts,” but good company.

D. O.

✎ The following names and signatures of writers and correspondents we find on and among the pages of vol. 4, and we let them appear as we noted them down in turning the leaves of the volume for the purpose of soliciting all to continue their labours with us for the love of the truth during 1850. Perhaps we may be able to add others to the list before the year closes:—E. Sheppard, J. Buchanan, W. Bradt, A. Clendenan, W. Lamphear, B. Summy, L. Cooley, “A Methodist,” J. Black, R. Royce, W. A. Stephens, J. M. Shepard, J. Ash, “O.,” A. S. Hayden, J. Williams, G. Walkup, J. Menzies, J. Butchart, A. P. Jones, T. Bradt, H. A. Chase, W. W. White, “An Old Samaritan,” T. G. Scott, “Timothy,” W. Trout, “Diffidence,” A. Anderson and J. Kilgour, “A Traveller,” and D. L. L yton. These form a very respectable “cloud of witnesses,” but we fondly hope to have their number increased and their testimony more frequently delivered.

D. O.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Several communications are in waiting for next month. We are looking for an increase of correspondence during the present volume.

✎ The Address of the Evangelists to the brotherhood, in this Number, is recommended to the attentive perusal of all the holy brethren.

D. O.