

Free Church of Scotland Missions, has taken place at Sidmouth. Dr Duff went to India about fifty years ago, and remained there thirty-four years. He was often spoken of as the "prince of missionaries." He was an excellent linguist, and did much by his translations and otherwise for the spread of Biblical knowledge in the various languages and dialects of India. He was twice elected to the Moderator's chair.

A friend of mine was walking along the streets one dark night, when he saw a man coming along with a lantern. As he came up close to him he noticed by the bright light that the man had no eyes. He went past him; but the thought struck him, "Surely that man is blind!" He turned round and said, "My friend, are you not blind?" "Yes," was the answer. "Then what have you got the lantern for?" "I carry the lantern," said the blind man, "that people may not stumble over me." Let us take a lesson from that blind man, and hold up our light, burning with the clear radiance of heaven, that men may not stumble over us.—D. L. Moody.

A gentleman at Bristol writes:—"For six years a decayed tooth prevented mastication on the side it was situated, as well as causing many sleepless nights; but having used Bunter's Nerve, I am not only relieved of the most troublesome of all pains, but can now use the tooth without the slightest inconvenience."

SLEEP.—Many think that sleep is lost time. But the style of your work will be mightily affected by the style of your slumber. Sound Asleep is sister to Wide Awake. Adam was the only man who ever lost a rib by napping too soundly; but when he woke up he found that, instead of the twelve ribs with which he started, he really had nigh two dozen. By this I prove that sleep is not subtraction, but addition.—Talmage.

THE CHEAPEST TEA SOLD.—The Temperance Societies' 10 lb. Chest of 2s. 6d. Tea sent carriage free to any railway station in England or Wales on receipt of P.O.O. for 21s. 8d., payable to William Geeves, Cheltenham. The tea is packed by Geeves' patent process, and subdivided suitable for division between friends or sale by retail (no licence required).—BROS. GEEVES and Co., Wholesale Tea Packers by Royal Letters Patent, Cheltenham.

The more we desire holiness, the more ripe for heaven. This is a rule. The nearer we are to any good our hearts are set upon, the more impatient are we in the want of it.

COUGHS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS.—Medical testimony states that no other medicine is so effectual in the cure of these dangerous maladies as Keating's Cough Lozenges, which are sold by all Chemists, in boxes, at 1s. 13d. and 2s. 9d. N.B.—They contain no opium or preparation thereof.

CAUTION.—BOND'S CRYSTAL PALACE GOLD MEDAL MARKING INK. By Royal Command to the Queen and Court of Holland. Instructs the million in drawing, never can be washed out, prevents theft, loss or mistake. Enlargement of bottles. Some chemists and stationers, for extra profit, palm off colourable imitations. Genuine Label has Address—75, Southgate Road, London. Vendors are cautioned and reminded of action tried Jan. 15th and 16th 1876.

PRICE ONE PENNY.

OUR BILL of FARE for 1878

Is, we think, an unusually good one. It is as follows:

HOPES SECRET, AND HOW IT WAS FOUND OUT. By the Author of "Gracie's Puzzle."

HILTON GRANGE; OR, COUSIN MARTHA'S TROUBLE. By the Author of "Philip Dene."

OUR FEATHERED FAVOURITES. By a new Authoress; giving the true history of her pet hens.

LITTLE BAPTISTA. By the Author of "Phoebe of Plathwaite." A real narrative of an Italian boy who became a famous musician.

PICTURE STORIES. These must be continued, as our dear friends are so fond of them: or else they give us no little trouble to invent. But we never grumble at any trouble which we take in amusing, instructing, or edifying our young readers.

POETICAL ENIGMAS. Our kind friend KATE W. has promised us a new supply. The key to them will be given at the end of the year.

Many other useful and entertaining papers will be found in SUNSHINE.

Each Year's Volume is complete in itself, price 1s. 6d. in plain cloth, and 2s. 6d. in extra cloth, elegantly gilt.

The first twelve years may now be had in three handsome Volumes, price five shillings each, cloth gilt. Twenty-four complete Stories, each worth Half-a-Crown if published separately, besides a variety of interesting Papers—a delightful Library for any youthful reader.

These Magazines will be supplied Monthly by any Bookseller or News-vendor.
