

The Macmillan Company's NEW PUBLICATIONS

RUDYARD KIPLING : "Puck of Pook's Hill." - - - $1 50

With many Illustrations.
"The writer in his most idyllic mood."—Mail & Empire.

"Easily ranks with the finest work from Kipling's pen."—Toronto Saturday Night.

"Shows once more those gifts of imagination and literary art which place Mr. Kipling easily at the head of all contemporary English writers."—Sunday World.

"Kipling has proved a veritable Puck in the witchery with which he has endowed the incidents of history so vividly brought before the reader that they become absolutely unforgettable."—Toronto News.

JACK LONDON : "White Fang." - - - $1 50

With Colored Illustrations.
50,000 copies sold in advance of publication.

Portraying with the author's marvellous power the rising of a wolf into well-ordered life, as "The Call of the Wild" described the degradation of a noble dog into utter savagery. An inimitable picture of animal life.

MARION CRAWFORD : "A Lady of Rome." - - - $1 50

Another of this established author's entrancing studies of Italian life, which he understands so perfectly.

"A story of universal interest, most human in its attractiveness."—New York Times.

WILLIAM LeQUEUX : "The Invasion of 1910." - - - $1 50

With Maps, Plans, etc.

"The story is a remarkable tour de force."—Toronto News.

"It is sure to arouse controversy, and will serve a good purpose."—Toronto Globe.

PIERRE LOTI : "Disenchanted." - - - $1.25

A Romance of Harem Life.

"There is much that is touching in the condition of the poor enslaved princesses who are the heroines of the book. We dare not begin quoting a book of which every page is a picture."—London Times.

STANLEY WEYMAN ; "Chippinge Borough." - - - $1 25

A capital story of politics and love in the days of the Reform Bill.

ROSA N. CAREY : "No Friend Like a Sister." - - - $1 25

An ennobling story of sisterly love in every way worthy of this favorite author's reputation.
