THE CHURCH NOT A PROSELYTIZING BODY.

It is to be deeply regretted that such a claim should be advanced for the Church, but it frequently has been done. Such a claim if proved, would, in the estimation of the writer, unchurch the Church and unchristianize Christianity; and can only be put forward in the very vain hope of disarming opposition on the part of those who belong to other religious organizations.

The Church of God from the earliest ages, certainly acted upon the contrary principle. At the very institution of the covenant by circumcision although the promise was restricted to Abraham and his seed still provision was made that those "bought with money of any stranger," "must needs be circumcised."
