A BRAVE LITTLE MOTHER. This is a true story, and among the "golden deeds of courage" I think that it should have its place.

Across the street from my home is an old Revolutionary homestead, surrounded by grand trees, which are our delight through all the year.

Last autumn, when a certain little boy arose one morning very early to gather nuts, he had quite an experience with Mother Frisky, and became her most devoted admirer ever after.

With horror, I saw that they were aiming at our dear little mother squirrel, who was rushing among the bare branches, trying to reach her home and babies.

With a graceful bound she made her escape and disappeared into her hole. Then one boy said "Climb up, Pobby, and scare her out; we'll get more stores!"

With a shrilling of laughter that silvers the air! There's a flourish of feet as she holds him snug, With his head thrown back in a swirl of hair.

Then happy and laughing they hurry back To that smallest of cots on that small side way.

With a flourish of feet as she holds him snug, With his head thrown back in a swirl of hair.

With a flourish of feet as she holds him snug, With his head thrown back in a swirl of hair.

SMOTHER A COUGL

You can smother a cough with your hand but you can't cure it that way. Some medicines only smother coughs.

Scott's Emulsion cures them. Old coughs and deep-rooted coughs can't be cured until the inflammation which causes them has been replaced by healthy tissue.

That is exactly the kind of thorough work Scott's Emulsion does. It changes the entire nature of the throat and lungs so that there is nothing to cough about.

My sorry eyes "No," I replied, "that would frighten her still more. You will have to win her trust."

"I'm awfully sorry," whispered another voice. "So am I," came in a sad chorus. "But there is one thing you can do," I said, as I pressed a little hand that had stolen into mine.

"We will!" right joyfully rang out five clear, boyish voices. "I often see them standing under the old tree, their honest faces upturned to catch a sight of the merry little family doing acrobatic feats among the top branches."

But the bodyguard is faithful. Their fame has spread abroad, too, and many other squirrels are safer because Mother Frisky, by her brave, unselfish act, touched the hearts of five thoughtless little boys.

THAT BABY.

There's a droll little baby that runs away - From 'round the corner on Frenchman street - If you watch you may see him 'most any day.

With his brown, bare arms, and his brown, bare feet. A smaller lot you'll not see - Of the human sort - with such speed and spring.

His hair is tousled, his frock is rent. He is mud-spattered and dust-bright. But his little face shows supreme content.

Oh, the wabbling work of those limbs so small - Oh, the frantic strain of the spidery thing - When he hears the voice of his mother call.

An extra scramble! A clutch! A hug! There's a shrilling of laughter that silvers the air! There's a flourish of feet as she holds him snug.

Then happy and laughing they hurry back To that smallest of cots on that small side way.

With a flourish of feet as she holds him snug, With his head thrown back in a swirl of hair.

Chats With Young Men

A TASTE FOR READING Knowledge and learning are two different things. It is not easy to think out for one's eyes, even very obvious things.

It was a charming ceremony. At mass the humble catechumen would not occupy the chair prepared for him. He had already separated himself from all his fetishes and his wives, and put aside his crown of antelope horns in a corner of his house.

The twenty-eight chiefs of Nsabe (then held a council and decreed: (1) that all parents should send their children to school, and that for school purposes each of the nine quarters of the town should give up the fetish house of the quarter.

It is a remarkable coincidence that on the very day I baptized Ohi we learned of the death of the first missionary of Nsabe, Father Carlo Peron.

TWO ROYAL BROTHERS IN BLACK.

We do not know much about African kings, but we are glad to hear that the Holy Father has sent a beautiful picture of the Blessed Virgin to the King of Onitsha, Samuel Oka Paolo.

In due course the great feast of the tribe came around, and Sami, according to custom, ought to have sacrificed to the official fetish - slaughtered a goat and danced before the idol.

COUGHS AND COLDS ARE OFTEN OVERLOOKED. A continuation for any length of time causes irritation of the Lungs or some chronic Throat Disease.

THE MOST INTERESTING MAN IN CANADA. Joseph Brown Attracts Attention of Physicians, Scientist and Sick People.

From The Mail and Empire. Oshawa, Ont., Feb. 17. - Joseph Brown, whose case was fully reported in The Mail and Empire some days ago, seems to be the most talked-of and written-about man in Canada.

Joseph Brown answers "I have given my sworn statement, and it tells the story. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me, and that after I had been partially paralyzed and unable to move for over four months, and given up by many doctors."

Many people have been passed as how a kidney medicine can cure paralysis. This is really understood when it is remembered that the kidney system, which is the great motor of the body, is the great motor of the body.
