

performance. Mr. Torrance succeeded in an address to the people, going over those duties which Mr. Duff had urged upon the minister, and showing that there were corresponding duties incumbent on them which they were bound to fulfil. At the close Mr. Duff introduced Mr. Fayette to the members and adherents of the congregation, and Mr. Barrie to the Session. Mr. Torrance then handed to the Session £12, the sum which had been placed at the disposal of the Presbytery by the congregation of Richmond Hill and station of King, and which they had resolved to appropriate to Euphrasia.

Thus closed the interesting services of a day, which, we hope, will prove the commencement of a time of blessing to the congregation in that quarter. God has blessed them in allowing them so soon to see their pastor. It is not long since they placed themselves under the superintendence of the United Presbyterian Presbytery of Wellington, and they were successful in their first endeavours to procure a stated minister. Let us trust that he has gone to them in answer to prayer,—that the union formed may be long continued,—that peace may be within the walls and prosperity within the palaces of this portion of Zion, and that many may be born through the ministry of the Word.

Immediately after dinner, the members of Presbytery, having taken an affectionate farewell of Mr. Fayette and family, started for the town of Sydenham, which they reached after nightfall.

“Your Committee cannot present their Fifth Annual Report without alluding to the prevalence of cholera during two months of the past year, in consequence of which the operations of the Society have been greatly impeded, and by which twenty-five members or adherents of this Church have been transferred, we trust, from the Church below to the Church above. But, while feeling the painfulness of
