

We take this opportunity to congratulate Your Lordship and Family on your safe and pleasing return to the Government of a Country so much indebted to Your Lordship's Councils, for the free and happy Constitution it now enjoys: A Constitution assuring above all others yet imagined, the Prosperity and Happiness of Mankind.

HIS LORDSHIP'S ANSWER.

Gentlemen,

I CANNOT but be highly pleased with the sentiments of respect for your Sovereign and zeal for your Country's good, contained in your Address: I consider them as sure pledges that your labors will be directed to the strengthening of His Majesty's Government, and the Establishing of your New Constitution, and the general Security, Happiness and Prosperity of this Province.

Accept my best thanks, Gentlemen, for your approbation of my public Conduct, and for your Congratulation on my return to this Country.

The following is the Address of the House of Assembly to His Royal Highness PRINCE EDWARD, with His Royal Highness's Answer.

TO HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS PRINCE EDWARD,

Knight of the most Noble Order of the Garter, and of the most Illustrious Order of Saint Patrick; Colonel of His MAJESTY'S 7th Regiment of Foot, or Royal Fusileers, and Commandant of the Garrison of Quebec, &c. &c. &c.

May it please Your Royal Highness,

THE Representatives of the Province of Lower-Canada, deeply impressed with the most lively Sense of the ardent Zeal and indefatigable Activity, which Your Royal Highness displays on all Occasions, for the Protection of their Property, the Security of their Persons, and the Defence of their Country; take the liberty Respectfully to approach your Person, to offer You their Thanks.

Sensibly affected at seeing the Son of their Sovereign, discovering in the Service which He has embraced, talents worthy of the Illustrious Blood which flows in his Veins; and manifesting the greatest desire of putting them in practice with more effect against the attacks of the Common Enemy; they consider it their duty and owe it to Justice to pay tribute to such distinguished merit, by a public declaration of their sentiments of Respect and admiration.

Accept therefore their most earnest wishes for the preservation of Your Royal Highness, and for your rapid advancement in a profession to which you do honor. — Quebec, 14th November, 1793.

ANSWER OF HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS.

Gentlemen,

BE pleased to accept of my Warmest Thanks for the very flattering proof, which You have given me of your attachment to my person, in presenting me
