

SATAN'S FOUR SERVANTS.

Satan has a great many servants, and they are all busy and active ones. They ride in the railway trains, and sail on the steamboats, they swarm along the highways of the country and the thoroughfares of the city, they do business in the busy marts; they are everywhere and in all places. Some are so vile looking that one instinctively turns from them in disgust; but some are so sociable, insinuating and plausible that they almost deceive at times the very elect. Among the latter are to be found the devil's four chief servants. Here are their names.

"There's no danger." That is one.

"Only this once." That is another.

"Everybody does so." This is the third.

"By and by." This is the fourth.

When tempted from the path of strict rectitude and "There is no danger" urges you on, say, "Get thee behind me, Satan!"

When tempted to give Sunday up to pleasure or to labor, and "Only this once," or "Everybody does so," whispers at your elbow, do not listen for a moment to the dangerous counsel.

All four are cheats and liars. They mean to deceive and cheat you out of heaven. "Behold," says God, "now is the accepted time, now is the day of salvation." He has no promise for "By and by.—Selected.
