THE FAR REACHING

Perfume of a good name heralds the claim that Patnam's Painless Corn Extractor is a sure, certain, and painless remedy for corns. Fifty imitations prove it to be the best. Take no acid substitutes at druggists.

"I will add," concluded the young man applying for situation, "that I am a college graduate." Oh, that won't make any difference," was the reassuring reply, "if you stick to your work; and, besides, we want somebody about the place who is strong enough to carry in coal."

FLOWER SEEDS FREE!

Every lady reader of our paper who is a lover of flowers and is interested in their cultivation, should accept the offer of S. H. Moore & Co., N.Y. City, who agree to send their charming paper. See advertisement in another column of this issue.

Happiness lies concealed in our duties, which, when fulfilled, give it forth as the opening rose gives forth fragrance.

Those who follow after others in sinning are in danger of following them in suffering.

A man may forget his business, his family, and all the sacred obligations of a life, but the terrible pains of neuralgia, rheumatism, lumbago and sore throat can only be forgotten after using freely of Minard's Liniment. It cures like

THE TEACHEPS' ASSISTANT

To Explain and Illustrate the Canadian Church Sunday School Lessons, adopted by our Provincial Synod of Canada, Sept. 16th, 1889.

Price only 30 cents per annum.

Brimful of interesting matter on every Sunday's Lesson. No Sunday-school Teacher who tries it will be without it.

The Bishop of Toronto thus writes respecting the Assistant:

"I strongly commend it to the notice of the Clergy of the Diocese, hoping that they will promote its circulation among their Teachers."

The Bishop of Algoma says:

"The Assistant" is certain to prove a valuable aid to conscientious Sunday School Teachers. Designed (as its name implies) to stimulate but not to supersede careful preliminary study of the lesson, it opens up new lines of thought, which cannot fail to give solidity to the instruction conveyed in the Sunday School that use it."

The Bishop of Niagara says:

"The Teachers' Assistant" will be valued by all who feel the need of their own minds being stimulated and informed before going to the class in the Sunday-school.
