

facts in the life of Christ, to prove that instead of being good in a weak and spiritless way, he had, in superlative degree, the bravest and highest manliness.

Problems of Life and Mind. Third Series. By George H. Lewes. 8vo. 3 25
This volume concludes the great work on "Problems of Life and Mind," which Mr. Lewes planned but did not live to finish. This book was substantially completed before his death, and has been prepared for publication by thoroughly competent persons, working in co-operation with George Eliot, who is hardly less eminent in the domain of philosophy than in fiction.
