

European Intelligence

INCIDENTS OF THE WAR.

THE BRITISH CAMP AND ARMY.

From the Correspondent of the London Times.

CAMP BEFORE SEBASTOPOL, April 11.

The preparations for a speedy evacuation of the Crimea are pressed on with rapidity and energy. Each division collects about 4000 shot a day, and they are carried to Balaklava as fast as the means at our disposal...

tion to their tents than they appear disposed to do at present, when they pay visits to the Russian camps. The French offer an example in that respect which we ought not to be too proud to follow, and the Russians are most scrupulous in their dress and demeanour on all occasions of the kind.

as Quebec, invited the co-operation of the Province for the auxiliary measures of defence. The vigour with which at this moment a militia force is being organized, justifies our continuing to place, as we do place, the fullest reliance on this policy.

ereviews wide enough for a man's leg, and perceptibly extending twenty or thirty feet down. Perhaps these crevices supplied the men with pure air, and thus enabled them to support themselves with comparative ease.

APPOINTMENTS. HEAD QUARTERS, Toronto, May 15. MILITARY DISTRICT NO. SEVEN, UPPER CANADA.

THE CHURCH. Why were so few of the Canadian Clergy amongst the speakers at the Anniversary Meeting of the Upper Canada Bible Society lately held in Toronto?

he has no lawful authority. Now surely the conduct of this foreign Prelate is of this character. The Bible Society is a religious society, the meeting was called for religious purposes, affecting the whole Diocese of Toronto, but called without the sanction of the Bishop of the Diocese, and consequently we cannot suppose that he had invited his United States Episcopal Brother to attend it.

THE INDEPENDENCE AND INTEGRITY OF TURKEY GUARANTEED BY ENGLAND, FRANCE AND AUSTRIA.

A treaty between Her Majesty, the Emperor of the French, and the Emperor of Austria, guaranteeing the independence and integrity of the Ottoman Empire, was last night presented by the Ministers to both Houses of Parliament.

RESCUE OF THE BURIED ALIVE. FIFTEEN DAYS IN A COAL BANK - INTERESTING PARTICULARS.

The fact that four men were buried alive by the caving in of a coal bank near Zanesville, Ohio, over two weeks ago, has since that time attracted much attention and created great excitement throughout the vicinity of the accident.

MILITARY DISTRICT NO. FIVE, UPPER CANADA. First Volunteer Troop of Militia Cavalry of the County of York.

Such being the facts, we feel assured that even the dissenting intelligent advocates of the Bible Society will scarcely be able to understand how consistent Clergymen of the Church can attend its meetings, without adopting the unhallowed principle, above alluded to, of doing (what to them at least must be) "evil that good may come."

Your commentary at 10-1 speaks of the Rev. A. Palmer's democratic sentiments, and winds up the subject with the significant remark made as you say by some delegates, in language more expressive than elegant about my "transparent toadyism."

ENGLAND AND THE UNITED STATES. Among the official papers presented to Parliament last night, is the reply of Lord Clarendon on the part of the British Government to the despatch of Mr. Marcy, dated 28th December last, in which he announced that Mr. Crampton had become an unacceptable representative of Her Majesty at Washington, and requested his recall.

THE LOCALITY. Of the accident is on the west side of the Muskumung in Blue Rock township, half a mile above what is called Coal bank.

THE CAUSE OF CAVING. was the unskillful manner in which the bank was worked. Instead of working the vein, which was a four and a half feet vein, the ordinary width of about twelve feet, and leaving at short intervals pillars of ten feet square to support the superincumbent mass of rock and earth, there were large rooms made, and few pillars left, and these small; so that when the crash came, which it did with a report that sounded to the men like thunder, it fairly pulverized the pillars, and crushed into fragments the rocks above, and upon the top of the hill there were found

THE CAUSE OF CAVING. was the unskillful manner in which the bank was worked. Instead of working the vein, which was a four and a half feet vein, the ordinary width of about twelve feet, and leaving at short intervals pillars of ten feet square to support the superincumbent mass of rock and earth, there were large rooms made, and few pillars left, and these small; so that when the crash came, which it did with a report that sounded to the men like thunder, it fairly pulverized the pillars, and crushed into fragments the rocks above, and upon the top of the hill there were found

MILITARY DISTRICT NO. SEVEN, UPPER CANADA. One Company of Volunteer Militia Foot Artillery is authorized at Dundas, to be styled the Volunteer Militia Foot Artillery Company of Dundas.

Some of our Brethren who apparently do not see as we see, and whose charity is so diffused over every possible form of Protestant error, that they have seemingly little left for those of their own Brethren whom they are pleased to call "High Churchmen," although we worship at the same altar as themselves, will probably denounce us for thus writing; but we appeal to educated and well-informed dissenters and say, "Gentlemen, have we not written as becomes consistent Churchmen, men who have exprobrato received the Prayer-Book as their authoritative guide in doctrine and practice?"

Well now do let us consider this matter a little. For several years a strong desire has been felt and expressed by the Bishop and his clergy, that the Laity should take an active part in the affairs of our Church; and I do not recollect having heard any one publicly gainsay the expediency of admitting the Lay element into the Councils of our Church. On the contrary, the great object of all our Petitions and addresses has been to obtain legal sanction to the management of the affairs of our Church in this Diocese by its Clergy and Laity in conjunction with our Bishop.

There have been some unwise expeditions made by sundry officers, from the rank of general downwards, across the Tchernaya to Mackenzie's Farm and the north fords. It is stated that passes will not be required for officers, and there has been a great deal of fraternising between the Russians and English. Gen. Codrington, accompanied by Admiral Freemantle and Col. Harding, commandant of Balaklava, proceeded to-day in a steamer towards Yalta, to enjoy the beauties of the coast. Mr. Androsky, aide-de-camp to Gen. Luders, paid a visit to headquarters to-day, and rode into Balaklava and back with Gen. Windham. On Sunday a high mass will be celebrated by the Russians at the Mackenzie, after which there will be an open air ball, and many English and French officers have been invited to be present. It is most desirable that our officers on this occasion should be more careful of appearances, and pay more at-

tion to their tents than they appear disposed to do at present, when they pay visits to the Russian camps. The French offer an example in that respect which we ought not to be too proud to follow, and the Russians are most scrupulous in their dress and demeanour on all occasions of the kind.

tion to their tents than they appear disposed to do at present, when they pay visits to the Russian camps. The French offer an example in that respect which we ought not to be too proud to follow, and the Russians are most scrupulous in their dress and demeanour on all occasions of the kind.

tion to their tents than they appear disposed to do at present, when they pay visits to the Russian camps. The French offer an example in that respect which we ought not to be too proud to follow, and the Russians are most scrupulous in their dress and demeanour on all occasions of the kind.

tion to their tents than they appear disposed to do at present, when they pay visits to the Russian camps. The French offer an example in that respect which we ought not to be too proud to follow, and the Russians are most scrupulous in their dress and demeanour on all occasions of the kind.

tion to their tents than they appear disposed to do at present, when they pay visits to the Russian camps. The French offer an example in that respect which we ought not to be too proud to follow, and the Russians are most scrupulous in their dress and demeanour on all occasions of the kind.

tion to their tents than they appear disposed to do at present, when they pay visits to the Russian camps. The French offer an example in that respect which we ought not to be too proud to follow, and the Russians are most scrupulous in their dress and demeanour on all occasions of the kind.