"Window gazing," says the London Times, "is a regular profession in this city. A couple of stylishly dressed ladies pause before the window of a merchant, remain about five minutes, and audibly praise the goods displayed inside. Then they pass to another store on their long list of patrons."

Minard's Liniment Cures Diphtheria.

Chicago, Sept. 20th, 1894.

Gentlemen,—I wish to certify for the benefit of rheumatic sufferers of the great relief and cure I have experienced through your wonderful remedy. Three weeks after exhausting every known remedy, and feeling completely discouraged, I commenced using your Acetocura and now I am another man and I have no pain whatever.

Very truly,
G. H. REEVES,
(Reeves & Beebe),

They have a remarkable black cockatoo in Adelaide, which was brought down from the Northern Territory recently by Mr C. Haimes. The bird can speak in a wonderful way, it seems altogether beyond what is generally accomplished by the parrot tribe. He is said to be able to converse freely and to sing, preach, pray, swear and even dance; and, naturally enough, arrangements are being made to bring him on to London without further delay. When Lady Hopetoun was over from Melbourne the other day on a visit to Adelaide, she was shown the bird, and, it appears, tried to buy it, but the creature has now become so valuable that it is beyond the means of ordinary people.—Colonies and India.
