

3. For the purposes of this Article:

- (a) members shall send to the Executive Director such information concerning the quantities of grain involved in commercial sales and purchases and special transactions as the Council within its competence may require, including:
 - (i) in relation to special transactions, such detail of the transactions as will enable them to be classified in accordance with Article 5;
 - (ii) such information as may be available as to the type, class, grade and quality of the grains concerned;
- (b) any member when exporting grain shall send to the Executive Director such information relating to their export prices as the Council may require;
- (c) the Council shall obtain regular information on currently prevailing grain transportation costs, and members shall report such supplementary information as the Council may require.

4. In the case of any grain which reaches the country of final destination after resale in, passage through, or transshipment from the ports of, a country other than that in which it originated, members shall to the maximum extent possible make available such information as will enable the shipment to be entered in the records as a shipment between the country of origin and the country of final destination. In the case of a resale, the provisions of this paragraph shall apply if the grain originated in the country of origin during the same crop year.

5. The Council shall make rules of procedure for the reports and records referred to in this Article. Those rules shall prescribe the frequency and the manner in which those reports shall be made and shall prescribe the duties of members with regard thereto. The Council shall also make provision for the amendment of any records or statements kept by it, including provision for the settlement of any dispute arising in connection therewith. If any member repeatedly and unreasonably fails to make reports as required by this Article, the Executive Committee shall arrange consultations with that member to remedy the situation.

ARTICLE 8

Disputes and complaints

1. Any dispute concerning the interpretation or application of this Convention which is not settled by negotiation shall, at the request of any member which is a party to the dispute, be referred to the Council for decision.
