

- b) carrying traffic under the code of any other airline(s) where such other airline(s) has been authorised by the aeronautical authorities of Chile to sell transportation under its own code on flights operated by the designated airline(s) of Canada.

Code sharing services involving transportation between the Points in Chile shall be restricted to flights operated by an airline(s) authorised by the aeronautical authorities of Chile to provide services between the Points in Chile and all transportation between the Points in Chile under the code of the designated airline(s) of Canada shall only be available as part of an international journey. All airlines involved in code sharing arrangements shall hold the appropriate underlying route authority. For the purpose of code-sharing and notwithstanding the provisions of Article III (Change of Aircraft), airlines shall be permitted to transfer traffic between aircraft without limitation. The aeronautical authorities of Chile shall not withhold permission for code sharing services identified in Note 4 (a) by the designated airline(s) of Canada on the basis that the airline(s) operating the aircraft does not have the right from Chile to carry traffic under the code of the airline(s) designated by Canada.
