Canada Labour Standards Code. I believe that there are no persons receiving less than that amount now, but it is being checked.

Mr. Barnett: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just wanted to be sure that the hon. Member for Winnipeg North Centre would be able to enjoy a happy July 1 celebration.

Mr. Knowles: Merci beaucoup.

Mr. H. W. Herridge (Kootenay West): Mr. Speaker, I listened with interest to what the hon. Member for Timiskaming (Mr. Peters) had to say. The hon. Member tells me he was referring to the manager of the Parliamentary Restaurant, whose services have been examined by the joint committee of this House and the other place. The hon. Member also informs me that the committee recommended that this gentleman be discharged. I do not know anything about the details of the matter, but it does seem odd to me that after a committee which is recognized and appointed by this House and the other place has made a certain recommendation, the Internal Economy Commission should go against that recommendation and give a very large increase in salary to this person. Personally, Mr. Speaker, I believe there are other persons employed around this building who are more deserving to receive this type of consideration than the person I have mentioned.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSESUMMER ADJOURNMENT

Hon. G. J. McIlraith (President of the Privy Council) moved:

That when this House adjourns this day, it stands adjourned until Monday, September 27, 1965, at 2.30 o'clock p.m., provided always that if it appears to the satisfaction of Mr. Speaker, after consultation with Her Majesty's Government, that the public interest requires that the House should meet at an earlier time during the adjournment, Mr. Speaker may give notice that he is so satisfied, and thereupon the House shall meet at the time stated in such notice, and shall transact its business as if it had been duly adjourned to that time.

In the event of Mr. Speaker being unable to act owing to illness or other cause, the Deputy Speaker shall act in his stead for the purpose of this order.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the said motion?

Privy Council. However, I would like to know, before we adjourn, if the President of the Privy Council and the Secretary of State for External Affairs, as well as all the members of the cabinet, will have enough time during those three months to study the proposals of the Social Credit party which aim at giving Canada a sound administration.

Some hon. Members: Oh, oh.

Mr. Monteith: Debt free money. The Minister of Finance will go for it.

Mr. Gordon: Mr. Speaker, I should like to assure my hon. friend that we do not need any time for that.

Motion agreed to.

AETNA CASUALTY AND SURETY COMPANY OF CANADA—REQUEST FOR CONSIDERATION OF BILL

Mr. A. J. P. Cameron (High Park): Mr. Speaker, may I crave the indulgence of the House. This morning there was referred to the House from the Senate, Bill No. S-18, an Act to incorporate Aetna Casualty and Surety Company of Canada. If I have the unanimous consent of the House I would move that we revert to private Members' business, and if I could also obtain unanimous consent I would move that the petition for an Act to incorporate Aetna Casualty and Surety Company of Canada—

Some hon. Members: No.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Order, please. There is obviously not unanimous consent in respect of the motion proposed by the hon. Member.

Mr. Cameron (High Park): Mr. Speaker, I would have liked to receive unanimous consent, because otherwise this bill will be delayed for three months and it is a very important matter. I am sorry that unanimous consent has not been given.

Mr. Grégoire: We will see you in three months time.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Is it agreed that we suspend the sitting of the House to the call of the Chair?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Mr. Knowles: Mr. Speaker, will that be by a ringing of the bells?

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Yes, hon. Members will be called by the ringing of the bells.

At 8.20 p.m. the sitting was suspended.
