REPORT OF THE AD HOC PARLIAMENTARY COMMITTEE
ON LIGHTSTATIONS—DEBATE ADJOURNED

Leave having been given to proceed to Inquiry No. 59:

Hon. Eric Arthur Berntson (Deputy Leader of the Opposition), on behalf of Senator Carney, rose pursuant to notice of June 21, 1995:

That she will call the attention of the Senate to the report of the Ad Hoc Parliamentary Committee on Lightstations.

He said: Honourable senators, on behalf of Senator Carney, I will speak two words and then adjourn the debate on Inquiry No. 59, dealing with the parliamentary committee on lightstations. The reason for the adjournment is that we simply have not had time to get to that item on our agenda, with all the other things we have had on our plate. Senator Carney would like to debate this item at a later date.

On motion of Senator Bernston, for Senator Carney, debate adjourned.

BUSINESS OF THE SENATE

Hon. B. Alasdair Graham (Deputy Leader of the Government): Honourable senators, if there is agreement, I move that all remaining orders, reports, motions and inquiries stand.

Motion agreed to.

The Senate adjourned until tomorrow at 2 p.m.
