My dear Colonel:-

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your book "The Destiny of America" with an appendix "What of Japan?".

I read this with a great deal of interest and pleasure and wish to congratulate you on what, I believe, you say is your first attempt at writing a book. There is a point which, perhaps, you will clear up for me. To you I know it will be no problem and the question arises, doubtless, from my ignorance. Were the tribes of Judah and Levi the only ones who were to carry through life the long Jew noses. I always thought that all the sons of Jacob had this characteristic, and I have often wondered how some of the descendants of Jacob became the fair-haired British people.

I hope that ll goes well with you and that whenever you come to Montreal you will look me up.

Ever yours faithfully,
