

November
Twenty-second 1921.

Dr. Adams,
Dr. Scane
Dr. Harkness
Dr. Thornton.

Dear Dr.

I desire to enlist your cordial and personal support in an effort to assist the Department of Physical Education.

We all know the indifference with which the students have regarded the regulations of that Department and the trouble which has resulted in consequence. The Director of Physical Education has, in my opinion, done everything that could reasonably be expected of him. He has written to delinquents, and has forwarded their names to the Deans of the several Faculties, and yet the indifference continues. It may be that expulsion from the University for failure to comply with regulations may become necessary, but before such drastic action is taken I would like to satisfy myself that everything possible has been done to make the students realize that regulations must be obeyed.

I know that when delinquents are reported to the Heads of Faculties some Deans call the students before them for reprimand. Others may be satisfied with the mere posting of a notice on the notice Board. While the latter action should meet the case, still the sense of discipline is so low that it does not suffice.

I am attaching herewith a list of students who, according to the records in the Department of Physical Education, have no attendance to their credit up to Saturday, November 19th. The Department demands that the 7/8 attendance rule be enforced. If these students comply with the