

R.D. Furse, Esq.

We shall probably make mistakes and some of our men will doubtless prove disappointments to you, but you can always rest assured that our recommendations will be just and impartial.

I cordially share your hope that you may have another opportunity of coming again to Canada.

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.