

THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT

GRANTS

ASSISTED PASSAGES

To Farm Labourers, Mechanics, Female Servants, and Navvies.

The magnificent Steamers which ply between England and Canada have contributed in no small degree to the prosperity of the latter country.

The Messrs. ALLAN despatch two Steamers each week from Liverpool, and one from Glasgow; the accommodation on board their vessels is of the very best kind to be found in ocean travel. Agents of the Company are to be found in almost every town in Great Britain and Ireland, from whom all necessary information may be obtained and Passage Tickets procured.
