' with refpect to the courfe of the Ohio, and the ter-
' ritories in that part fince the furrender of Canada,
' and the line of its limits has been traced as afore-
' faid by the Marquis de Vandreuil, all thofe oppofite
' titles are united, and become valid without con-
' tradiction, to confirm to Great Britain, with all the ' reft of Canada, the poffeffion of thofe countries on
' that part of the Ohio which have been heretofore
' contefted.

2. " The line propofed to fix the Bounds of Loui-
' fiana cannot be admitted, becaufe it would comprife
' in another part, on the fide of the Carolinas, very
' extenfive countries and numerous nations, who have ' always been reputed to be under the protection of
' the King; a right which his Majefty has no inten-
' tion of renouncing; and then the King, for the ' advantage of peace, might confent to leave the
' intermediate countries under the protection of Great
' Britain, and particularly the Cherokees, the Creeks,
' the Chicafaws, the Chactaws, and another nation,
' fituate between the Britifh fettlements and the Mif-
' fiffippi.

III.

' The King refers to the third Article of the Ul-
' timatum of England concerning the Ceffion of Se-
' negal and its dependencies, as well as the ifland of
' Goree, in the moft ample manner, as expreffed in
' the faid article; and his Majefty renews the de-
' claration which has been made by Mr Stanley,
' that if the Court of France would fuggeft any rea-
' fonable expedient to provide themfelves with Ne-
' groes, which may not be too detrimental to the ' interefts of the Britifh fubjects in Africa, he will
' willingly enter upon a difcuffion of this fubject.

IV.

' The important privilege granted by the 13th ar-
' ticle of the treaty of Utrecht, under certain limi-
' tations