

Page.		Page.
18	UNITED STATES:
18	had no municipal law in 1793 to aid in performance of international duties.....	127
19	course during President Washington's administration.....	127
20	treaty of 1794.....	131
21	construction thereof by commissioners.....	132
21	enact neutrality laws at request of Great Britain.....	133
22	correspondence with Portugal.....	137-146
22	principles recognized by that correspondence.....	146
149	what they regard as due diligence.....	158
24	seizure of Spanish gun-boats in 1869.....	160
25	character of southern blockaded coast.....	222
	VESSELS OF WAR, (see Commission; Contraband; Neutrals .)
150	of belligerents, sale of in neutral ports.....	322
158	VIRGINIA, THE:
159	inquiries as to.....	298
159	WACHUSETT:
163	treatment of, at Bermuda.....	353
167	WALKER, NORMAN S.:
169	made insurgent agent at Bermuda.....	238
	his urgent demand for coal.....	277
	is supplied with coal by Fraser, Trenholm & Co.....	278
	WASHINGTON, PRESIDENT:
220	his course towards Mr. Genet.....	129, 131
	determines to restore prizes captured by privateers fitted out in United States.....
	his course suppressed privateering.....	131
320	WESTBURY, LORD:
	appointed Lord High Chancellor, June, 1861.....	98
270	regards animus of neutral as sole criterion.....	101
270	says United States may use Queen's proclamation to prove animus.....	101
272	says ship should not be built in neutral port by belligerent with view to war.....	185
272
273	WILKES, ADMIRAL:
274	correspondence with governor of Bermuda.....	355