1756. which, he made a forced march to the Oneida Carrying-Place; where he immediately felled trees into the Wood Creek, to prevent the approach of the * enemy.

> THESE, my Lord, were great overfights: but the lofs of Ofwego must principally be ascribed to a more distant caufe ---- to a juncto, who have all along embarraffed every part of his Majesty's service on the Lake Ontario, By their mifreprefentations, the public has been drawn into a dependence upon the Six Nations, merely to exalt Sir William Johnson : and that nothing might be wanting to procure a change in the command of the army, and deftroy all confidence in Shirley's judgment, Ofwego, the great object of his attention, has been flighted as an uneffential post; and the reduction of St. Frederic reprefented as a point of far superior moment.

Unhappy confequences of the lofs of tant post.

My LORD, by these intrigues our country bleeds --- Ofwego is loft --- loft perhaps for ever, --- with the naval arthis impor- mament --- above 60 pieces of ordnance, and a rich fupply of ftores and provisions, laid in at a valt expence, for feveral thousand men, during the whole campaign, ---Would to God this was all, and we had nothing worfe to apprehend ! --- Our furr trade, which has long been the principal object of the national attention, and the fupport of our frontier city of Albany, is at an end. The French

> * The French were equally apprehensive of his advancing towards them, or of our attempting to repuild Ofwego : and very prudently improving the prefent advantage, began where General Webb left off, and continued the obstruction quite down to the entrance into the Oneida Lake; which renders it impossible to pass thro' the Wood Creek, 40 miles in length. General Webb not long after abandoned the Carrying-Place, after burning down the forts, much to the diffatisfaction of the Indians.
