TORONTO MIGHT GET THE BUSES

Civic Officials Will Confer With Company Regarding a Franchise.

RESTRICTIONS REMOVED

On North Side of Bloor Street Between Brunswick and Madison.

It begins to look as if the Toronto may have a motor bus service. W. D. McPherson, M.L.A., put it up to the board of control to do something more than just sit tight on the policy of no franchise, nothing but a license. "We don't insist upon a franchise," Mr. McPherson declared. "We only want assurance that the large amount of money we propose to invest in a bus service will be sufficiently protected. Why not instruct your solicitor and commissioner of works to confer with the company's solicitor and arrange form of agreement to be submitted to the council?" he asked. "The board has little or no knowledge of your plans," Controller O'Neill said to Mr. McPherson. "Did you submit a plan showing the routes upon which the buses would be operated, we could form some idea of the advantage the service would be to the city."

"You must also recognize that the city is negotiating at present for the purchase of the rapid transit service, at a cost of about $20,000,000, and that this is not an opportune moment for dealing with the inauguration of a motor bus service," Controller McCarthy reminded. "A commission would be appointed if the Toronto Railway Co. property is purchased, and that commission would have to deal with any proposition to operate a motor bus service."

"We recognize that," Mr. McPherson said, "but we feel that our proposition could be considered in the meantime."

They Oppose It. Reports from the corporation counsel and the commissioner of works were read, recommending that no franchise be given for a motor bus service.

"Other cities are adopting motor bus service as a part of their transit service," Controller Church said, "and Toronto should at least give full consideration to the proposal of the company. We should put thru a resolution that the city solicitor and the commissioner of works confer with the company's counsel, and report to this board."

Such a resolution was carried, and Mr. McPherson promised that a plan of the routes of the proposed motor bus service would be prepared and submitted to the board at once.

Rev. Lawrence Skey of St. Anne's Church, who had asked the privilege of placing a fence at the church property that would encroach on the street, and was refused by the city council, made another appeal to the board. It was sent on to the council again.

North Toronto Poultry Association applied for a grant towards its prize list. The grant was refused and the association will be advised to co-operate with the National Fat Stock Show, to be held in Exhibition Park in November.

Restrictions Removed. The property commissioner recommended the removal of residential restrictions from the north side of Bloor street between Madison avenue and Brunswick avenue. This was approved.

Commissioner Wilson reported that all the drivers in the street cleaning department are now receiving an increase of $1 per week, and a half holiday each week.

An account of $1600 for arbitrating a $3500 property in connection with St. Clair avenue widening, was ordered to be paid.

Water Pressure. Light water pressure in the northwest section is explained by Commissioner Harris as the result of closing down several valves on feed mains to permit connections being made under the railway tracks, where the Devonport road and Poplar Plains road subway is being constructed. The commissioner has ordered that the work be done on Sundays hereafter, so that the pressure will not be interfered with.

TO MAKE MOROS LAY DOWN ARMS

United States Takes Firm Measure to Ensure Peace in Philippines.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(Can. Press).—Complete disarmament of the semi-civilized tribes in the Southern Philippines as a final step towards permanent peace in the Archipelago, is the object of the attack upon the Moros which Brig.-Gen. Pershing began today. The American officer carefully laid his plans months ago for his movement.

In the north disarmament has been effected peacefully and it had been hoped that, thru the good offices of the Sultan of Jolo, the savage Mohammedan tribes in the Jolo group and in Mindanao, might likewise be induced to give up their weapons. Negotiations were carried on with the various datus with the active sympathy and support of the Sultan of Jolo, but recent advices made it appear that the disarmament policy could be carried out only by force.

Full Authority Assured. The war department was not advised of this last move by Gen. Pershing, who has been given a free hand in the conduct of his campaign, but the officials have no doubt that his plans will result in the full establishment of the authority of the United States Government in the Southern Philippines. A forward movement of this kind made today was expected some time ago, but the officials are satisfied that Gen. Pershing postponed his advance designedly in order to accumulate a sufficient force of soldiers to overwhelm the opposition and thereby reduce to a minimum the casualties on both sides.

A degree of skepticism prevails in certain quarters in the war department as to the probable efficacy of disarmament as a means of establishing a permanent peace. It was suggested today that thru their pearl fisheries and other valuable resources the natives in the Jolo group are wealthy and would have little difficulty in replacing the weapons they now possess with improved firearms secured from nearby Borneo, thereby making them more formidable than ever.

CAMP IS BETTER THAN ANY OTHER

Twice as Good as Last Year, Says Colonel Sam Hughes.

BIG SHAM FIGHT TODAY

To Be Followed by Inspection by General Ian Hamilton.

By a Staff Reporter. NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE, June 11.—"This camp is 100 per cent. better than last year," said Col. the Hon. Sam Hughes this afternoon after his tour of inspection with Gen. Sir Ian Hamilton. "Last year the tents were pitched in all sorts of ways and there was no system about it whatever. There is some system about the way camp is being run this year."

While Gen. Hamilton did not express an opinion on the camp as he found it, he appeared to be pleased with its appearance. While going thru the lines he watched particularly for men wearing war medals, speaking a few words with each, recalling incidents that occurred in various battles.

In a later interview he expressed regret that such a small proportion of the city regiments had come to camp, and referring to the difficulty of securing men, he said: "You are too prosperous in this country."

Some Good Now. Col. Sam Hughes was particularly pleased with the energy shown by the Royal Canadian Engineers, who have made many improvements in the present camp. Col. Hughes claimed the credit for having weakened the engineers out of a lethargic condition. In former years he said they sat and did nothing. Now they were paying for their keep.

Major Maddocks, orderly officer to Sir Ian Hamilton, has made a suggestion to utilize Co. Sam Hughes' moving pictures in musketry instruction in the country. Major Maddocks says, they have moving picture machines and the object remains stationary. "It's as good as hunting in Africa," remarked a by-stander. Col. Hughes has promised to bring the matter before Lieut.-Col. Helmer, director of the musketry.

Sleep in the Open. All the troops in camp are sleeping under the stars tonight. They are divided into two forces; one is at St. David's and the other near Thorold, about 12 and 15 miles from here. They marched out of camp early this afternoon and tonight everything here is as quiet as when no camp is in progress.

The fight begins at 5.30 in the morning, when Col. Sir Henry Pellatt will try and force his way across the Welland Canal at Merrittton and Thorold. The canal will be defended by Lieut.-Col. E. W. Moore, commanding the 5th Infantry Brigade. Operations will be over by 9 o'clock and the belligerents will return to camp by special train.

The big review and march past will take place tomorrow afternoon and will be witnessed by many visitors. The excursionists who will remain until after the tattoo in the evening.

The camp postoffice officials delivered mail this afternoon to the troops bivouacked on the scene of the sham battle, Lieut. Murray and Pte. Terry carrying the letters out on horseback.

CAMBRAY VILLAGE IN DANGER FROM FIRE

Flames Which Destroyed Cottage Threatened a Wide Sweep.

LINDSAY, June 11.—(Special).—The Village of Cambray, nine miles from Lindsay, narrowly escaped destruction by fire early this morning. The fire was caused, it is presumed, by a spark in the frame residence. Mrs. McIntyre. Fanned by high wind, the flames quickly consumed the structure, and also spread to an adjoining residence, the property of W. G. Webster, which was partly destroyed.

The work of a bucket brigade prevented the fire from making a clean sweep.

FIRE SWEEP THRU COUNTY BUILDINGS

Interior of Fine Structure at Welland Destroyed With Heavy Loss.

WELLAND, June 11.—(Special).—Welland's fine old county buildings, the best sample of masonry and architecture in the county, were completely gutted by fire this afternoon, at a loss of fifty or sixty thousand dollars. Judge Pettit was holding court when, those in the court room heard a cracking in the tower above, and a few minutes later, smoke was seen. The firemen made a splendid fight, and checked the flames before they got down to the first floor, but the whole of the second floor, including various offices, the grand jury quarters, judges' chambers, court room and law library, including several thousand dollars' worth of books, were destroyed. The fire is believed to have originated from defective wiring.

The thirteen prisoners in the jail were placed in the jail yard, and later it was necessary to remove them to the town lockup, where they are now incarcerated in two cells.

The insurance on the building and contents amounts to $40,000. The buildings were built in four years, from 1852 to 1856, in the last year of which Welland County was created from the district of Niagara. The original cost was $100,000. The stone work stands intact.

FARMER STILL MISSING.

BELLEVILLE, June 11.—(Special).—There is no trace yet of Mr. Robert Hoskins, the Thurlow farmer who disappeared from his home on Saturday last. A large party is still searching for him.
