

ARTICLE V.

The entrance fee of new members shall be ten dollars, and the annual subscription of all members ten dollars, but at anytime after the number of members reaches two hundred and fifty the Committee may in their discretion increase the entrance fee, such increase however not to continue beyond the next Annual General Meeting unless confirmed at that meeting.

ARTICLE VI.

Subscriptions shall be payable in advance within one week of the Annual Meeting. The name of every member failing to pay by the 15th of June in each year shall be posted in the rooms, and if payment is not made by July 1st, the Secretary shall report the same to the Committee, who shall erase the name from the list of members. But the Committee may reinstate such member if he thereafter makes satisfactory explanation and payment.

ARTICLE VII.

The subscription of new members ballotted for on or after January 1st in each year shall cover the period to the Annual Meeting in the following year, and any new member failing to pay his entrance fee and subscription within thirty days of notification of election shall be considered to have declined admission.

ARTICLE VIII.

Any member whose dues are all paid shall be at liberty to withdraw from the Club on his written application to that effect sent in to the Committee.

ARTICLE IX.

Strangers, not residing within fifty miles of Montreal, may be introduced by any member inscribing their names in the Visitors Book, and such visitors shall be entitled to the privileges of the rooms for one week from the date of such entry. By special application to and vote of the Committee, this period may be further extended.
