Exceptional offerings in high-class dining-room furniture are among the special features of Simpson's August Furniture and Homefurnishings Sale today. This furniture is substantially built, finished from oak, mahogany and walnut, and will prove an artistic as well as serviceable adornment for any dining-room. Although the sale has been in progress for several days, new goods have been rushed in to fill up the depleted stocks, and the selection is now as good as ever—and all at money-saving prices.

It Would Be Particularly Advantageous to You Just Now to Be a Member of Our Home-Lovers' Club

This store is offering remarkable values in furniture at extraordinary reductions in price, and if a club member you would have a special opportunity of profiting by these sales. If you are unable to make a complete payment in cash for any desired article you may secure immediate possession by making a nominal payment in cash and arranging for the balance by a series of periodic payments. No need, therefore, to delay in the purchase of any article of home furnishing that you may desire. Consult the club secretary, fourth floor, for complete information.
