CANADA DON'T SPEND FREELY IN INTERESTS OF DEFENCE

Expenditure Jealously Looked After—Army Service Corps in Need of Improvement.

Last night at the Canadian Military Institute Lieut.-Col. W. G. Gwatkin, director of operations and staff duties at Ottawa, delivered an address on "Mobilization."

"Mobilization," he said, "in its primary significance means the rendering of an army mobile with a view to active operations in which are included all the arrangements necessary to facilitate transition from a peace to a war footing, and no scheme would be complete which disregarded the wastage of war and made no provision for the upkeep of a force already mobilized and in the field."

He said the royal navy has guaranteed the safety of the British dominions from invasion by sea.

He laid down as two main principles the placing on a war footing with the least possible delay a first line of defence of 100,000 men, and the training, organizing and equipping of the second line of defence, drawn from the men of the population in reserve, with a view to maintaining the first line undiminished in numbers and efficiency.

He affirmed that the army service corps is not in a position to undertake the services which are required of it. Officers should be properly qualified. Our cousins across the border, he taught us how dangerous it is to entrust the leadership of troops in war to gentlemen whose appointment is due to political influence rather than professional experience. (Hear, hear.)

He next gave a description of mobilization in the old country. Proceeding he stated that in case of war it was likely that the order to mobilize would be delayed until the last moment, there would be a general rush to arms, the numbers would be far in excess of the equipment, and they would be demanding arms which were not forthcoming.

In Canada money is tight, and military expenditure is strictly, he might say even jealously, supervised.

IRISH FARMERS WARNED.

Told to Count on Removal of Cattle Embargo.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, April 9.—The "talking out" of the cattle bill has decreased the respect of the Labor member for house of commons procedure.

They regard the system which permits hours to be wasted in futile discussion as unbusiness-like and undemocratic.

The Mullingar branch of the United Irish League has passed a resolution warning farmers to reckon on the future importation of cattle when considering purchase terms. In moving the resolution, Father Magee said the big members among the Unionists and Liberal landlords had merely deferred the importation until their estates were sold.

FIREMEN WERE PROMPT.

And Kept the Loss Down to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars.

Prompt action by the fire department averted serious damage in the case of a fire which broke out in the dry goods store of S. R. Willinsky, 353 East Queen-street, shortly after 8 o'clock last night. The stock in the building, which, with contents, is insured for $11,000, was only damaged to the extent of about $150.

The fire started from an electric spark in the window.

A 22-MILL RATE.

Brantford, April 9.—(Special).—The city council to-night struck a rate of 22 mills, an advance of one mill over last year.

There was some opposition, but the measure finally carried by 11 to 3. The overdraft of the year will be met out of this.

WHERE THE IRISH GO.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, April 9.—Statistics just issued show that emigrants from Ireland in 1905 to the United States numbered 24,134; to Canada, 2360; and to Australia, 285.

Cleveland Like Toronto. Rev. Robert Johnston, pastor of the American Presbyterian Church, Montreal, is assisting Rev. Dr. McWilliams in a week's special services at Calvary Presbyterian Church, Cleveland, Ohio. His pulpit is being filled by Rev. J. A. Macdonald of this city in his absence.

He writes to his brother, Dr. J. M. Johnston of this city, saying, "Cleveland is a splendid city. It resembles Toronto much more than Montreal; wide streets, broad lawns, and detached houses, many of them of exceptional beauty."

Silver Wedding Remembered. Charles Moseley, the chief engineer of the Toronto Electric Light Company, was the recipient of a silver tea service from his various Toronto friends on the occasion of his silver wedding. The various friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Moseley at their home, 7 Czar-street, and the presentation was made by A. M. Wickens.

LOCAL TOPICS.

Randolph Macdonald, president of the Sovereign Bank, has authorized Park Commissioner Chambers to purchase a Scotch deer for the Riverdale Park Zoo, at his expense. The animal will cost about $100.

A house on Sydenham-street was quarantined yesterday by Dr. Sheard. The occupant, a married woman, was removed to the Swiss Hospital.

Galt Old Boys will organize permanently at the Iroquois Hotel this evening. Hon. Adam Beck, one of the old boys, will be present early in the evening.

In addition to the attractive program already advertised for the Doric Quartet concert on April 18, the "Ophelia Mandolin Quintet" have been engaged and will render some of their choicest selections. The box plan opens at the Bell Piano rooms, 146 Yonge-street, to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Dr. G. E. McDonagh of 140 Carlton-street, who has been south for the past three months, will be in his office on Wednesday, the 11th inst.

For Sure You'll Want Your New Spring Suit and Overcoat This Week

And there's no question about where to go to get them if you're one of those who want to be considered amongst the good dressers—

We're bound to talk character, style and perfect fit, because they're so far and away from the ordinary "ready-mades"—and, for the matter of that, much of the custom-made—

Every good style that the season has favored is here, the conservative designs as well as some of the innovations that are considered a bit radical.

Spring Overcoats—

The flare skirt—fitted to the form—may be counted in the list of innovations, but for all that they're not faddish, and made up in nice light and dark grey herringbone effects and Scotch tweeds, are really the dressiest of garments. Keeping a little closer to "old lines," we're showing a very fine range of overcoats in the dark Oxfords and blacks—

Prices 15.00—18.00—20.00—22.00—25.00—27.00 and 30.00.

Spring Suits—

You may choose yours here and follow fashions to the extreme, or you may be as conservative as you like and still be "in the fashion."

Nice grey worsteds and fancy tweeds are "the thing"—but black and blue serges have hosts of admirers.

Prices 15.00—18.00—20.00—22.00—25.00.

Spring Hats—

Not forgetting that first and foremost this is a hat store—let us introduce you to the new "Easter" blocks from such makers as

Youmans—Knox—Stetson—Peel and Christy.

New Soft Hats—2.00 to 6.00.

New Derbys—2.50 to 5.00.

New Silks—5.00—6.00 and 8.00.

Spring Furnishings—

And we draw a circle around a big lot of men's wearing needs when we mention this bright, up-to-date department in "the men's store"—

New "Easter" Scarfs—50c—75c and 1.00.

New "Easter" Gloves—1.00 up.

New "Easter" Shirts—1.00 up.

New "Easter" Vests—2.00 to 5.00.

New "Easter" things generally.

CANADIAN MAIL SERVICE.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, April 9.—The Glasgow Herald, discussing the London congress of commerce, says the proposal of the Canadian delegates to secure and retain their own line of steamships solely for mail purposes seems to be equivalent to crying for the moon. No lines could live by mails alone.

Why Canada should appear anxious to copy Australian methods of state lines is by no means clear, seeing now they have one of the finest mail services in the world.

AT THE THEATRE TO-NIGHT.

Smoke a "Murad" Between the Acts. "Murad" (poin tips) Turkish Cigarettes are the latest and best achievement of Allan Ramsay, for sixteen years government expert of Turkey. Gray and Porth recently resigned from the city council.

AUTOCAR LIKE THE KING USES FEATURE OF WEEK'S SHOW

Exhibition in Mutual St. Rink is Formally Opened—Displays Europe's Finest Machines.

Despite the inclement weather a large crowd attended the opening of the International Motor Show at Mutual-street Rink last night. The rink was handsomely decorated for the exhibition, and the brilliant display of overhead electric lights, of givers colors, equaled anything of the like ever attempted in Toronto. The interior draped with white and yellow bunting, formed a background for the different signs, and the orchestra gave a concert for two hours from a decorated platform at one side. Huge palms scattered all over lent an artistic touch to the brilliant scene.

That the show itself exceeded anything of the kind as yet seen in the province, is the decision of all who had an opportunity of seeing the most perfect models of automobile engineering that can be produced in Great Britain, the home of the new transportation. Several of the most costly and most luxurious autos in the world are at the Mutual-street Rink, and they were centres for the curious.

On entering the building the first object that strikes the eye is a large touring car, which is an exact duplicate of the car manufactured for King Edward by the Daimler Motor Company of Coventry, England. They also show a runabout of the type used by the Prince of Wales in England. The Argyle Company of Glasgow, the largest works in the world, have sent over several cars, one of which is the "Chassis Model," which is a duplicate of that shipped to India for the use of the Prince and Princess of Wales in their recent tour.

Swift Motor Company of Coventry also present touring cars and several very fine phaetons, in some of the newest designs. An electric bus, built to travel far and fast, is among the exhibits. Panhard and Levasor, Paris, introduced speed motor cars. New makes in Funabato, phaetons and four-seater cars show the great progress that French builders have made in the last year or two.

Brown Bros., Limited, London, Eng., C. A. Vandervell & Co., London; H. E. Walters, London, Eng.; De Dion Bouton, Paris, all show a large assortment of motor cycles, tires, accessories, lamps, etc.

The management's tickets for to-day, afternoon or evening, as there were, doubtless, many people who had tickets could not attend on account of the weather. The show will continue for the week.

ELUDED POLICE GORDON.

Brookville Officers Didn't Catch Alleged Horse Thief.

Brookville, April 9.—(Special).—After driving from Deseronto to Brookville with a stolen outfit, and with the police warned of his coming, Prof. Scapton, an alleged Indian doctor, escaped the clutches of the law.

He hired an outfit in Deseronto from a livery-keeper and violated the distance he was expected to go. He had left Kingston, driving this way, before trace of him was obtained, and managed to pass thru Gananoque safely.

The Brookville police were posted on his movements in advance, but he drifted into town and put up at a hotel where he deserted the horse and buggy and made off with the harness.

The liveryman came to Brookville to-day and identified the outfit.
