

FRIDAY MORNING

RECEPTION TO CANADIANS

Cape Town People Preparing to Give Our Boys a Grand Welcome on Arrival.

Will March Through the Town

And Are Sure to be Treated Like Princes, Whether Officially or Not.

London, Nov. 23.—(Telegram Cable).—A cablegram from Cape Town to the Daily Mail says a hearty reception is being prepared for the Canadian South African contingent. It is probable that the municipality of Cape Town will give the Canadian troops an official welcome. This is somewhat surprising, in view of the Government's pro-Boer tendencies. When the Boers arrived in Cape Town, they were met by a single Government official. The Boers, however, will make up for this in the part of the Government. They are making every effort to obtain permission for the Government to march through the town, instead of being confined to the barracks. The Boers are sure to be accorded a most cordial welcome. On the foregoing the Daily Mail claims copyright, with all rights reserved.

Permission Granted. The military authorities have given permission to the Canadian contingent on its arrival to march through the city, which will be beautifully decorated, and the day will be observed as a holiday.

French-Canadian Loyalty. The Daily Chronicle cables its correspondent in Toronto concerning French-Canadian feeling in regard to the war with the Boers. The correspondent writes that the French-Canadian feeling in Quebec is generally sympathetic with Great Britain, and that the French-Canadian party in the Cabinet and in the country.

ANOTHER BRILLIANT VICTORY WON BY THE BRITISH FORCES.

Mafeking and Kimberley, however, seem to be quiet.

The Arundel Reconnaissance. Later details regarding the Arundel reconnaissance say that the Boers there were engaged in destroying the railway. One account says that with doctors were sent out ambulances from the Boer camp, and that the British caissons must have been captured.

Situation in Natal. The situation in Natal is becoming obscure; fighting is reported.

Major-General Gatacre is one of the best generals, having made the most of his resources. He was born in 1842, and was a member of the 1st Life Brigade. He was in command of the 1st Life Brigade in 1882, and was appointed to the command of the 1st Life Brigade in 1882. He was in command of the 1st Life Brigade in 1882, and was appointed to the command of the 1st Life Brigade in 1882.

Boers Everywhere in Force. A disquieting feature of the whole campaign is the fact that all the advancing British generals report meeting the Boers in force. In view of the success of Gen. Buller in the past, it is not surprising that the Boers are everywhere in force.

The Dutch Rising. Gen. Gatacre's public anxiety, as it tends to confirm rumors that have long been current.

Naval Guns to be Used. A special despatch from Durban announced that more big naval guns were landed Wednesday and hurried to the front.

Sixth Division for Active Service. Late last evening it was asserted that the sixth division was actually being prepared for active service. Some of the yeomanry regiments have been warned for mobilization, owing to the scarcity of cavalry in Africa. It is also reported that another brigade of horse artillery will be mobilized.

ARREST OF THE DUTCH. They were Influential People at Nauport, but Suspected of Disloyalty.

Queenstown, Cape Colony, Wednesday, Nov. 22.—For strategic reasons and to reassure the British population, General Gatacre has decided on a partial forward movement after the reinforcements arrive to-night.

Several further arrests have been made at Nauport and in that neighborhood. Influential Dutch residents are being reported to deputations from Herschel regarding the intentions of the Free State forces at Ladysmith. Commandant Olivier declared that an invasion of the Herschel district was not intended. Nevertheless, an incursion is anticipated and the natives are arming and preparing to resist.

ARCH TRAITOR ARRESTED. Van Rensburg, Ringlander of the Rebel at Colaba, Will Be Tried for Treason.

Cape Town, Nov. 23.—Van Rensburg, the ringleader of the rebels at Colaba, was arrested just as he was joining a Boer command. Under orders from Gen. Gatacre, he will be tried for treason.

Transport to Durban. London, Nov. 22.—The British transports Parnala and Cephalonia arrived at Durban to-day with about 2000 troops. The total arrival will be the first division 11,000.

THREE GENERALS IN CONTEST.

The Movements of Clerg, Gatacre and Methuen—What They Have to Overcome.

London, Nov. 23.—Three British generals will vie with each other in the next few days in trying to win glory against the Boers. While they are tactically milt, their movements are widely separated, and as far as immediate objectives are concerned, they are independent of each other. As a result of the military clubs here will follow the three campaigns with keenest interest.

The Three Generals.

The three commanders are Major-General Charles F. Clery, in Natal, who will lead the advance to relieve Ladysmith; Major-General Buller, who has already started to the relief of Gatacre, commanding the British force in the Orange Free State; and Major-General Buller, who will push forward to the Orange Free State, and who will push forward to the Orange Free State.

Two Relief Expeditions will hold public interest from the start. They are in widely different directions. The Boers, however, will make up for this in the part of the Government. They are making every effort to obtain permission for the Government to march through the town, instead of being confined to the barracks.

CRUELTY OF SCHOOL LIFE

Hazing and Piling Caused the Death of a Bright and Robust Boy.

It Was an Aristocratic School.

At Which Young Martin Bergen Received Such Injuries as to Cause His Death.

New York, Nov. 23.—Hazing has claimed another life, that of one of the youngest scholars at Lawrenceville, N.J. The victim was Martin V. Bergen, a son of P. V. Bergen, a rich man of Princeton, and a representative of one of the oldest families of New Jersey. Martin died of injuries received at a hazing party on Saturday afternoon, his illness developing from injuries received on Saturday afternoon.

A dozen or more victims are heaped, one upon another, and some of them are thrown down upon the ground. The boys are then subjected to a series of punishments, and the hazing party is then dispersed.

The hazing party was held on Saturday afternoon, and the victim was Martin V. Bergen, a son of P. V. Bergen, a rich man of Princeton, and a representative of one of the oldest families of New Jersey.

WHEELED INTO A CAR.

Walter Hamm Met With a Serious Accident Yesterday Morning on Queens Street.

In trying to avoid a collision with another bicyclist, Walter Hamm, whose home is on Queens Street, took his life in his hands, and was nearly killed. He was wheeling down Queens Street on his way to work, when he was struck by a car.

The car was driven by a man named John Smith, who was driving at a high rate of speed. The car struck Hamm, and he was thrown into the air.

Hamm was taken to the hospital, where he was treated for his injuries. He is now recovering from his injuries, and is expected to be discharged in a few days.
