Presence of Poison Not Revealed Vital in Organs of Whalley And Report of Physicians' Analyses Deepens the Warehouse Mystery

MORE TIME FOR CORONER NO VERDICT FOR MONTH

Investigation Into Events Surrounding Front-St. Mystery to Be Continued in September.

POINTS TO REVOLTING CRIMES

Interesting Deduction Made From Facts Adduced During Different Phases of Police Work.

If George Whalley died of poison, such a subtle portion was used as to barfite three careful physicians. The coroner's jury Tuesday evening was devoid of any tendency to cast light upon the mystery surrounding the death of the Evans warehouse employe or other features touching the unusual circumstances that centered in the Front-street building. The physicians testified that they found no evidence that death had been occasioned by poison, and further that the cause of death was in normal condition. They had examined every vital organ carefully and were unable to offer suggestion as to the cause of death.

After all the evidence was in during the evening, an officer who has kept very close track of the case said: "While Green and Whalley may not have been murdered, everything in my opinion points to the fact that one of them was murdered with the stock of the warehouse and with the employe of the firm having been taken out of the stock. He knew that the money with which the salaries of employees were paid was in the hands of the man on Saturday."

BANNER YEAR FOR FRUIT

Weather Has Been Favorable for a Large Yield of the Most Desirable Kinds.

PEACHES PLENTIFUL, QUALITY FINE

September Varieties Will Be Particularly Good—Apple Crop
Will Be Enormous.

Reports from all sections enable the World to estimate with fair accuracy what the fruit crop of Ontario is likely to be this year. Strawberries were remarkably plentiful and of good quality. Cherries and currants, their season now over, proved to be sufficiently abundant. There was neither sign nor scarcity with them. Raspberries are equally plentiful and of excellent quality.

The bulk of the fruit crop, however, has yet to be gathered. Peaches are beginning to arrive. Some early plums, apples and pears also are appearing on the market, but the great rush has yet to come. Peaches are reported to be fairly plentiful, and of very fine quality. The Crawford, Libberts and other varieties that come in September will be particularly good. Pears and plums will be a good average crop.

But most interest in fruit centres about the apple. Last year the crop was the smallest known, and probably because there are apple trees, there are apples. The cool, damp nights of spring seemed to prevent the codling-moth's injurious activity, and the fruit is consequently much freer from worms than in former years. Housekeepers who could not buy their apples at the prices that prevailed, will this year be able to lay in a good supply. Although the fruit crop of 1902 promises to be satisfactory, both to growers and to consumers.

MR. TARTE AT OWEN SOUND.

Assures Deputation That Harbor
Improvements Will Be Made.

Owen Sound, Aug. 5.—Hon. Mr. Tarte arrived here at noon to-day and received a deputation from the council and board of trade this afternoon. After examining the harbor extension work he expressed himself as pleased and satisfied with the progress made. He also promised that the harbor improvements would be pushed until the harbor was made one of the best on the lakes, with at least twenty feet of water throughout from the entrance to the swing bridge. The question of a public harbor was left in abeyance, as an appropriation for that purpose will be recommended at the next session of the House. The minister left about 5 o'clock.

COSTS GOIN TO BE ARBITRATED

President of Denver Chamber of Commerce Settles a Strike.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 5.—President Malone of the Chamber of Commerce, will have to pay $1,025 for the privilege of acting as an arbitrator in settling the recent building trades strike. When he settled the strike the only difficulty was over the payment of the arbitrator by the unions against certain members. President Malone, on being told that the only nominal agreed to pay it out of his own pocket. To-day he was surprised to find that the fines amounted to $1,025.

A Great Medium.

An average daily circulation of 27,388 in a morning newspaper is worth a good deal more to an advertiser than the same number of copies of an evening paper. To be a subscriber to a morning paper argues freedom from the daily grind of the factory. The morning paper reader has leisure and money. The advertiser seeking cash trade or people with cash finds greater profit in a morning paper. Financial advertisers have proven this by experience. The World was delivered to 27,388 homes every day in May and June.

MIGHTY BRITISH-CANADIAN COMBINE TO FIGHT THE U. S. STEEL TRUST

FOR CONTROL OF MARKETS OF WORLD

Well-Known English Corporation to Join Hands With the Dominion Steel Co. and the Nova Scotia Steel Co. and Produce Manufactured Steel More Cheaply Than Ever Produced Before.

Montreal, Que., Aug. 5.—The Herald publishes the following, which could not be confirmed as Messrs. Ross, Angus and Forget left to-day for Sydney: The Hon. Senator G. A. Cox, who has just returned from England, and Mr. James Ross, the managing director of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company, who has come back from Cape Breton, had a conference this forenoon at the offices of the Dominion Coal Company, in the Street Railway building, and a question of momentous importance regarding the future of the allied steel and coal companies was, it is understood, the subject of their deliberations. It was nothing less than the formation of a gigantic British and Canadian steel combination, which will enter into competition with the American Steel Trust.

MUST KING EDWARD AGAIN GO UNDER THE KNIFE REPORTS GIVEN TO THE PUBLIC ARE MISLEADING

London Correspondent of a New York Paper Declares That His Majesty's Determination to be Crowned on Saturday is But the Prelude to Submission to Another Operation.

New York, Aug. 5.—The World's London correspondent says: The King Edward will undergo another surgical operation immediately after his coronation next Saturday. Despite the reports sent out recently of his rapid recovery and steady improvement in health, he is really very ill. He will be crowned next Saturday if it is physically possible for him to go through the ceremony, but then very little time will elapse before the surgeons will reopen the wound and operate for appendicitis.

As we stated in the special cable despatch to the World from Cowes on July 19, extraordinary precautions were taken to prevent the real condition of King Edward from being generally known. When the news agencies have sent out reports that he was fast regaining his strength and his usual good health, as a matter of fact he was too ill to move from his bed. Every report coming from the sick room has been purposely made of a reassuring character, when in fact the strict truth had been told the news would have been of a kind to cause the gravest apprehension.

Misleading News Given Out. Those who are entrusted with the duty of giving out the news regarding the King's health are following precisely the same lines they did immediately preceding the operation performed on him June 24. On June 21, when the physicians had decided that the amount of only nominal agreed to pay it out of his own pocket. To-day he was surprised to find that the fines amounted to $1,025.

BERESFORD TO VISIT AMERICA

British Rear Admiral Due in the Fall to Investigate Shipping Combination.

THE MATTER UP IN THE HOUSE

Secretary of the Admiralty Silent re Establishment of Colonial Lines.

London, Aug. 5.—Rear Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, M. P., will visit the United States in the coming autumn to study the American navy and to inquire into the working of the Morgan shipping combination. Lord Charles Beresford had no sooner relinquished his post of second in command of the British Mediterranean fleet than he assumed again the role of free lance, in which he had on previous occasions attacked the naval administration of Great Britain. He asserts that the Mediterranean fleet has been stunted in the way of adequate equipment of guns and corresponding supplies of shells and powder, and that more efficient cruisers are necessary to maintain the efficiency of the fleet.

As to the American shipping combination, Lord Charles Beresford, giving evidence recently before the Select Committee of the House of Commons on the subject of the proposed start of a war of tariffs and bounties with the United States. The possibilities of danger from the combination were enormous—the probabilities, he was in favor of retaining the use of fast merchant vessels to act as scouts in time of war.

DISCUSSION IN THE HOUSE.

London, Aug. 5.—In the course of the consideration of the naval estimates in the House of Commons to-day, Edmund Robertson (Liberal), alluding to the statement that J. Pierpont Morgan had offered the government the right to utilize the vessels of the ship companies as British cruisers, said he hoped that the Admiralty would make a conclusive bargain in so serious a matter without affording the House an opportunity to consider it. Mr. Arnold-Forster, Secretary to the Admiralty, in reply said he was not in a position to make a statement on the subject, except to say that the Admiralty certainly was not relying on any pledge made by any foreigner in the premises, and that which Mr. Robertson had spoken.

Continuing the Secretary to the Admiralty said he was not in a position to state what might be the ultimate decision of the government on the large question of subsidization or in regard to contributions toward the establishment of new lines between the United Kingdom and the colonies.

BANK FAILURE IN BERLIN.

Head of Firm Relative of Spreckels Family in San Francisco.

Berlin, Aug. 5.—Peter Spreckels, a kinsman of the San Francisco Spreckels family, is the principal owner of the private banking house of Eduard Hoeschke, which closed its doors on Friday last, owing to a total loss of 3,000,000 marks ($2,500,000) and liabilities of 3,000,000 marks ($2,500,000). Spreckels before and since the failure cabled to his American relatives for help. It appears that the American family kept a considerable deposit at Dresden, which Peter Spreckels now asks to have used for the benefit of his creditors.

HAIL AS BIG AS MARBLES

FELL AROUND Fonthill
Damage Estimated at $25,000 Done to Fruit Trees and the Two Nurseries.

OAT AND CORN FIELDS STRIPPED

Peaches and Apples Cut From the Trees—Second Destructive Storm in Ten Days.

St. Catharines, Aug. 5.—Word reached here to-day from Fonthill that the postmaster, Mr. Fred Kinsman, that the most disastrous storm in years struck that village on Sunday afternoon, causing a loss of between $25,000 and $30,000. It struck the village at the same time as the cyclone struck this city, but the greater damage there was done by hail. Mr. Kinsman saw the storm coming when it was about two miles away and warned several of the danger approaching.

The heavy pieces of ice, which measured one and a half inches thick, piled up several inches high, fell thick and fast, cutting everything in their wake. The different fruit and grain farms are badly damaged. What is about all in, but hundreds of acres of oats are ruined. Mr. A. Haddon and Mr. Wm. P. Hays, fruit-growers, will lose to the amount of $3000 each. The large vineyards were stripped of their fruit, and fully 50 per cent of the peaches and plums were cut off. Morris Stone's and Wellington's nurseries were badly damaged, their loss amounting to several thousands of dollars. This firm had over four hundred lights of glass broken. Fisher & Son, nurserymen, are heavy losers. They lost over 300 lights of glass, and their nursery stock was injured. Mr. Frank Muirhead's place was damaged and one cow killed.

M. Kinsman and the pleasure of making a gallon of ice cream from ten gathered of his own lawn on the third day of August, this being last Sunday.

W. E. Wellington of the firm of Stone & Wellington, nurserymen at Fonthill, received a letter on Tuesday giving some particulars of the damage done by Sunday's great hail storm. He says the hail stones were as large as marbles, and broke about one-third of the glass in the greenhouse of the firm, while Brown & Sons also lost a large quantity of glass. The nursery stock was not damaged, but peaches and apples were stripped from the trees and the hail did like damage to about 600 apples in their testing orchard. On Tuesday the hail was not in a position to state what might be the ultimate decision of the government on the large question of subsidization or in regard to contributions toward the establishment of new lines between the United Kingdom and the colonies.

Mr. Wellington estimates the damage done to the firm's property by the two storms at between $5000 and $10,000, half of which is due to Sunday's hail. He has no means of arriving at anything like the exact figure. He thinks the area covered on Sunday was large, as property several miles from Fonthill is known to have been destroyed.

MRS. ADAMS MAY DIE.

Shock of Only Daughter's Death Overcomes Her—One Body Found.

Tonawanda, N.Y., Aug. 5.—The body of Dr. Gray was recovered at 2 o'clock this afternoon, near the spot where he jumped in. About 50 boats are spread about the river in the vicinity, searching for the body of Miss Adams, whose mother is so grief-stricken she is not expected to survive. Miss Edith Adams, who was drowned, was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Adams, formerly of the Queen's Hotel, Port Hope. The family has lived at Toronto only a few months.
