SOCIETIES APPROVE PLAN TO RESTORE OLD FORT

Presentation of Scheme to Mayor and Council Left to Committee.

The Historical, Military and Patriotic Societies of Ontario passed their hearty approval on plans submitted by Barlow Cumberland for the restoration of the old fort at a meeting in the Cana-HAMILTON, Jan. 12 .- (Special.) - dian Institute yesterday afternoon.

Judge Smider this afternoon issued an Members were present from all the Nashville produce merchant, charged their approval of the plans presented their approval of the plans presented with fleeting the First National Bank of about $8500. The order was made on only one charge, that of defrauding charge on which Bonk can be tried when taken across the border. He cannot be taken back for 15 days against his will, but it is understood that he will return voluntaily at the find of the week. Crown Attorney Washington has issued an order that the $6000 found sewed up in Bond's vest when he was arrested be returned to the bank.

Got Off Car Backwards.

At the assizes this afternoon a jury day. Earl Grey had been very much interested when informed of the plan blizabeth Horning, who was injured by at Ottawa had expressed itself favorgetting off a car backwards.

The suit of Myers v. Radial was settled out of court, the criminal libel charge laid by F. C. Mills against M. M. Robinson was sent over until the major and present city council had expressed a desire to assist in the undertaking of any reasonable proposition.

ing were: Dr. Sexton, Halifax, supderintendent of technical school, and Inspector J. H. Leake. Their subject was technical education. Dr. Sexton said there was a crying need for technical education. The public school system did not train boys for anything but business or professional employment, and as 60 per cent. of them became artisans, this was not fair or democratic. Inspector Leake paid a tribute to the Hamilton Board of Educamocratic. Inspector Leake paid a tri-bute to the Hamilton Board of Educa-tion, which built a technical school in twelve months.

Because she told so many different stories, the suit brought by Ida May Gravelle against Peter Zaas for betrayal, was dismissed this morning by Justice Teetzel at the request of the crown prosecutor. His lordship asked the girl what she meant by committing perjury, and she said she had been frightened into it. The judge referred her case to the crown attorplaced and the guns which have beer removed would be placed back in post tion. All this would necessitate an expenditure of $15,000, which in view of the splendid asset Toronto has in the old fort, would be only too readily contributed by the city council when the matter was presented in its proper light

There is something different and superior about Zam-Buk. Time and again workers in all branches of trade have proved its vast superiority over the advertised ointments and salves of the day. No doubt the fact that Zam-Buk is made entirely from herbal essences and extracts, while ordinary outstracts. and extracts, while ordinary ointments contain more or less animal fats and oils, goes a long way to explain Zam-Buk's superiority. However this may be, the fact remains that in four conti-nents to which it has been introduced within ten years it has become the leading household balm!
