

¶ The Accounts of the Treasurer and Depositary, which appeared in the preceding Report, having been made up to the end of August, 1850,—it has been thought advisable to let them run on from that time to the end of the present year, and be made up then for the next Report.