MORE TROOPS REACH HERE FOR THE WINTER

Further Detachment of 140th Arrives From Sussex

TODAY'S LOCAL WAR NEWS

Notification of Appointment of Several More Officers to be Attached to Staff of 115th With Colonel Wedderburn

After New Year's St. John will be alive with soldiers. The military establishment was further increased this morning by the arrival of 120 men from the 140th from Sussex, who are to be stationed in West St. John for the winter, making nearly 800 men located there now. A vigorous campaign is to be inaugurated for the 115th, which will fill the ranks of that battalion and thus make more than 1,000 additional soldiers stationed in the city for the winter. The 104th Battalion band returned to St. John today with the members of the 140th detachment, and will probably remain here over the Christmas holidays.

More Appointments

Some further appointments for the 115th battalion were announced today. Capt. J. G. Kirkpatrick, of Woodstock, 67th regiment, has been transferred from the 84th to the 115th. Other appointments include Lieutenant Alec Crichton, of Moncton, N. B., formerly adjutant with the 8th Hussars; Lieutenant G. W. H. Perley, of Andover, formerly of the 78th; Lieutenant Roy A. Davidson, of St. John, formerly of No. 2 Sec. No. 4 Co., C. B. C., a graduate of this year's class in Kings College Law School; Lieutenant Clarence McN. Steeves, St. John, of the Corps of Guides, son of the principal of the agriculture school, Sussex, and formerly engineer with the Dominion Public Works, now chief engineer and superintendent of the Maritime Dredging Co.; Lieutenant Douglas B. Weldon, of the 15th Field Battery, Moncton; Lieutenant Alexander Farner, of Chipman, formerly of the 74th regiment, now manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Chipman; Lieutenant A. Clair Gilmore, St. John, 62nd Regiment, assisted in business with his father, A. B. Gilmore, King street, and Lieutenant E. A. March, St. John, 62nd Regiment, commercial traveler.

SUDDEN DEATH OF WILLIAM ALEXANDER

Former Policeman Here and Later Official at Dorchester

Death came suddenly last evening to William Alexander at the home of his son, Thomas A. Alexander, 178 Wentworth street. Mr. Alexander, who was sixty-nine years of age, had been in his usual health until a few days ago when a physician warned him that his heart was affected, but he was feeling well last evening and after a hearty dinner and writing a letter to an absent son, he decided to take a bath. His son found him dead at the door and found his father expiring. The suddenness of the shock adds to the sorrow of the family, who will have the sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Mr. Alexander was a native of Burnsville, Kings county, and in his younger days served for six years in the St. John police force under Chief Marshall. He was then appointed to a position in Dorchester and was connected with the penitentiary there for thirty-five years, holding the position of chief night keeper when he retired in 1908.

Since then he had resided with his son in St. John while waiting to secure a home for himself. He is survived by his wife, two sons, Leslie B., superintendent of the Pinkerton detectives in Dallas, Texas, and A. J. Alexander, a member of the staff of McDougall & Cowans, St. John; and three sisters residing in the United States. He was a member of the Foresters.

The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence of his son, 178 Wentworth street.

POLICE COURT

Alice Singer, arrested on Saturday afternoon on charges of being the proprietress of a disorderly house in Brusseau street, and selling liquor without a license, appeared in the police court this morning. She was remanded on the first offence and fined $50 or one month in jail for the second. Ernest Lachapelle, Thomas Ramsay, Thomas Grant and George O'Dell, arrested on charges of being frequenters of the house, were warned that they were liable to nine months in jail.

Commissioner McLellan spoke on behalf of the four soldiers. He paid a tribute to the 69th Battalion and said they were the best behaved group of soldiers ever stationed in the city. He said the police records and members of the department could attest to it. He said there was no excuse for these men being in the house, but attributed it to their condition brought on by drinking bad liquor. He considered that they would in all probability take warning and keep away from such places in the future.

Evidence was given by Detective Thomas Barrett, Assistant Detective George Briggs and Sergeant Sullivan, and the defendants were remanded.

Ellish Stewart, colored, pleaded guilty to taking a tub of butter from an express wagon owned by D. J. Purdy. He said he had not stolen it, but that only taken it to play a joke on the teamster. He was remanded for enquiries.

William Corrier was remanded on a charge of inducing soldiers to desert or assisting them to do so. He was not asked to plead.

Three men arrested on drunkenness charges were fined $8 or two months in jail.

Cyril Kane and Clement Creary were sent up for trial on a charge of breaking and entering Robinson's bakers in Main street. Joseph Quinn and Walker Andrews testified.

HE IS OBSERVANT

Bugler James Vickerstaff of the 26th Battalion, in a letter to his mother here, refers to the way in which the number 18 figures in the battalion's history. He points out that they left St. John on June 18, left Sandling camp on September 18, were in the crater fight on October 18. Twice thirtens is twenty-six, the number of their battalion, and they are associated with the 39th Battalion, whose number is thirty thirtens. The last co-incidence in the list was the receipt of pay amounting to $18 on the day he wrote.

Everyone Has a Sweet Tooth Now

The "sweet tooth" surely has its day during the Christmas season. Christmas without candy would be a joyous season with all the joy taken out.

All the more reason to be careful in the choice of your confectionery—to see that it is free from adulteration.

All the more reason for seeking to guard off the "after Christmas" headache.

It's a good time to look closely into the character of the store and the guarantee behind the name on the candy box.
