SAYS AUTO WORSE THAN DANCE HALL

Halifax Woman Scores Joy-Riding Parties

HALIFAX, Dec. 11.—(Canadian Press)—"The dance hall is not the great evil in itself," said Mrs. Virtue, questioned on the work that the police department is doing in trying to rid Halifax of certain vicious girls, and make it safer for the average working girl. "It is the car that waits outside, ready to roll up at beckoning signals and take parties on so-called joy rides. The dance hall is only the meeting place. Policewomen state that the trouble with many girls coming under their purview is that they are too lazy to work and take the easier course of having somebody else work for them. Even when we give them a chance and they promise faithfully to work, it is not very long before they leave their employers and are back on the streets again."

MONEY IS RECEIVED BY CHILDREN'S AID

The monthly meeting of the board of management of the Children's Aid Society was held last night in the Children's Home, 68 Garden street, with the first vice-president, Mrs. W. B. Tennant, in the chair. A letter was read from Miss Grace Leavitt, treasurer of the Local Council of Women, enclosing a check for $1,673.77, the proceeds of the Rose Bud day held last month.

Mrs. Tennant also handed in to the meeting a check for $10 from Dr. A. P. Barnhill. The secretary reported having received a check from W. A. Steiner for $25 as well as $7 from the Union Sunday School at Grand Bay.

$1 from an anonymous donor and the same amount from Mrs. White. The monthly report of the agent showed that since last meeting five children had been admitted, making a total of 27 little ones now under the care of the society.
