Robert Louis Stevenson's Famous Fiction in Eight Most Wonderful Reels

THIS IS THE STORY

Thousands of picture-lovers have been waiting for. Very few actors have essayed the astounding dual role of the benevolent physician and malevolent hermit because of its classic artistry, but Mr. Barrymore sets a new standard for the part—an absolutely wonderful creation.

All previous attempts to present Stevenson's weirdly wondrous drama of old gas-lit London pale into insignificance before this truly historic picturization.

SPORT NEWS OF A DAY: HOME AND ABROAD

The Big Game.
One of those "film fellows" who are ed against the Telegraph-Times shall aggregation at St. Peter's on today evening is reported to have the boast that his team could lick the newspaper without any practice; yet was observed gun-shooting it in a small uniform last evening along the back streets. His plea is that he is taking the suit out for an airing, but ers know better.

When Base Runners Are Out.
A dispute arose last evening during a game played between the Vets and St. Peter's, which is fully dealt with in the official rules. The dispute arose when Hansen, who was fielding a high fly between first and home plate, was struck by Sterling and knocked down. The rule reads:—A base runner is out if he fails to avoid a fielder attempting to catch a thrown ball or in any way obstruct a fielder in attempting to field a batted ball, or intentionally interfere with a fielder.

St. Peter's Defeat G. W. V. A.
In a well-contested game of baseball played in the City League fixture on Saturday evening the City League team defeated the G. W. V. A. nine by a score of 3 to 2. The game was called off at 8:30. The score was called in the seventh inning and the score was 2 to 1 in favor of St. Peter's. The Vets scored their two runs in the first inning and also bunched there hits. They failed to hit safely again until the last of the seventh when McGowan singled to center. St. Peter's scored in the second, third and seventh. The box score and summary follows:—

HUCKLEBERRY FINN

ALL you have ever loved, or "cussed," in a boy! And a lot about men and women! As only Mark Twain himself could see it and set it down. The tale of a lad who "fled from civilization," boarded a raft on the Mississippi, floated down, down, adventuring with a "King" and a "Duke" and old black Jim. The tale that will live as long as the world can smile, and men remember youth. Made into a picture in the truest sense, great.
