LOCAL NEWS

CONCERT TOMORROW.

The Temple Band concert in Victoria Square will take place tomorrow evening. The band is out today with the Knights of Pythias. Hence the postponement.

MOTORING TO HALIFAX.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bowes and their little daughters, Marjory and Doris, accompanied by Mrs. Theodore Evans of Lorneville and mother, Mrs. Causey, are motoring to Halifax, stopping at Amherst to visit relatives.

UNION STREET PAVEMENT

The new pavement in Union street will be completed in another week. Yesterday the road was closed to traffic. The crew of men employed at this work are now working on Main street, placing the granite blocks in the car track section. When Union street is completed, the asphalt crew will commence to place the surface on the southern side of Main street.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.

On Monday Rev. George Scott, agent of the Children's Aid Society, swore out an information before Magistrate Adams in the county, laying a charge of indecent assault on a boy of thirteen years of age and a little girl of tender years. County Police Officer Saunders today arrested the boy in question. He will be brought before Magistrate Adams this evening in Brookville for examination, when he will probably be remanded until next week.

EPIDEMIC OF ROBBERIES.

It has come to light that during the last few weeks there has been a regular epidemic of robberies committed in this city. That the work has been that of boys is quite evident, although in one instance the goods taken would suggest that the thieves were older. Included in the number of places broken into were The English and Scotch Woollen Company in Charlotte street, Stacey M. Watson's drug store in Charlotte street, the Standard Creamery in Main street and William Lunney's grocery store in Main street. In the first mentioned, two suits of clothes were stolen, in the second a quantity of cigarettes, in the third about $5 in cash and in the last a quantity of canned goods and some peanut butter. G. A. Ricker's drug store in Charlotte street was also broken into within the last few days but details of this break were previously published. So far none of the thieves have been apprehended.

EXCELLENT RESULTS FROM SALE OF BONDS

Provincial Debentures, Offered Direct to Public, Prove so Much in Demand That Total of $300,000 is Issued

The Comptroller General of the province has sold to the public at par $800,000 six per cent twenty year debentures, $200,000 were offered in the first instance, but so great was the demand for the bonds that an additional $100,000 was sold.

The money obtained by this issue will be used in improving the roads of the province. The principal and interest are payable from the motor vehicle fees received by the province.

The Provincial Secretary-Treasurer is to be congratulated upon this successful sale.

MAGISTRATE DOES NOT APPROVE OF MANNER CASE WAS HANDLED

There was something of a mix-up in the police court this morning the case of Edward Burke, charged with the theft of $880 from William Paddock, a returned soldier, who had been charged with the offence in Mr. Ryan, solicitor for the defence, asked for dismissal of the prisoner, claiming that there was no direct evidence against him.

The magistrate, in reply, admitted that the prosecution of the case by the police was very poor and in many cases very weak. He then turned to the police and explained that he was not going to prosecute the case. He was on the bench for the purpose of trying it and that was all he intended to do.

He said that all through the hearings, which have been many, considering the case, he had been hinting to the police to get busy, but all his efforts were in vain. He went on to say that a charge such as that Burke faces, was considered the third worst crime that a man could commit, and yet the case was prosecuted in such a manner that the lawyer for the defence could ask for dismissal on very good grounds. He said that he trusted that such a thing would never occur again in the police court of the City of St. John.

He set the case over until tomorrow morning and said that if the police had no better evidence than they have that the case will be dismissed. The policemen interested in the case, who were in court, thought that all their evidence was in and could not see where they could get any more.

This appeared to be very amusing to the magistrate and the lawyer for the defence.

EASY ON THE ENGINEERS

John Hodd and Robert London, charged with operating an engine and boiler in the plant of the Marine Construction Company, Strait Shore, without having a license to do so under the factory act, were this morning fined $10 each. The magistrate, however, before imposing the sentence, said that the sentence about to be handed out, was one of an old and feeble man, suffering from all the ailments that it was possible for an old man to have. He said that he would be lenient in this case on account of the two men charged. They were the men who would have to pay the penalty and therefore he did not feel like fining them the full penalty of the law, which would be up in the hundreds of dollars. The law is that a man proven guilty of the offence of running a steam boiler or engine, without having a license to do so, is liable to a penalty of $10 a day for each and every day. The magistrate very clearly stated that the next case brought before him under the same circumstances would not be dealt with in such an easy manner.

KNIGHTS FULFIL SOLEMN PLEDGE TO DEPARTED

Annual Decoration of Graves of Former Members This Evening—New Number 138—The List

"In fulfilment of the promise made at thy open grave, and because we have a kindly remembrance of thee, in the name of Pythian friendship, we bestow these symbols."

Reverently kneeling bare-headed at the graves of their brethren the Knights of Pythias of the city will this evening place floral tokens of love and tender memory in Fernhill, Cedar Hill, Church of England and Methodist burying grounds. There are 138 graves in all to be decorated with the floral cross and K. P. silk flag, the great majority of which are in Fernhill.

This annual decoration of graves is one of the strongest links in the Pythian bond of friendship and fraternity. It is actually the fulfilment of a pledge made at the graveside of each departed knight as a concluding token of brotherhood. When a Knight of Pythias dies his brother knights remove their mourning token of laurel from their lapels and drop it on to the coffin whilst the chaplain utters a pledge to keep his grave ever green.

Past Supreme Prelate Col. Jas. Moulson will deliver the oration at this evening's ceremonies and Past Chancellors E. E. Thomas and Jas. E. Arthurs will read the scriptures and offer the prayer. The Temple of Honor Band under Wm. E. Jones will lead the singing of the hymns "Asleep in Jesus, Blessed Sleep" and "When the Day of Toil is Done."

The flowers will be conveyed to the cemeteries in two barouches with emblematic designs on each. Uniforms of K. P. will be represented by Victoria and Cygnus Companies and the subordinate lodges, New Brunswick No. 1, Union No. 2 and St. John No. 30 (N. E.), will be under the official escort of Chamberlain Commanders R. C. Thomas, W. W. Armstrong and Thos. Totten respectively.

The procession will leave Castle Hall, Germain street, at 6 o'clock sharp and proceed to Fernhill by way of Germain, King, Imperial Place, Sydney and Waterloo.

The list of Pythian Graves being decorated today is as follows:

"Boys' Shop" Talk

THERE'S A REAL REASON why so many mothers bring their boys here to be outfitted. It is not just because we say we are the largest Boys' Shop in Eastern Canada. Many mothers have come, made a pleasing choice, and the boy has proven the wearing qualities to be all and more than we claimed. So these mothers not only came again, but told other mothers the good news. These also came, were delighted, and bought. Thus the mothers have in reality made us the large "Boys' Shop" that we are today. We show our appreciation by carrying a range of boys wear that is up to the mark in every way, at prices that are very low, in keeping with the qualities offered. Whether it be BOYS' SUITS, BLOUSES, SHIRTS, UNDERWEAR, STOCKINGS, HATS OR CAPS, anything a boy wears. It will be found here in a style, quality and price to suit everybody.
