DEALING WITH SOCIAL EVIL

Speeches at Purity Convention Meeting in Centenary Church This Morning. The convention of the World's Purity Federation in Centenary church this morning was attended by several of the local ministers, and two women and much interest was taken in the proceedings which were largely discourses by the visiting clergymen on matters of moral and social reform.

CARDINAL FARLEY'S TOUR. The press a few weeks ago was filled with articles relating to the tour of Cardinal Farley to Rome, where he received the red hat, and his triumphant entry into America on his return. Many people read the articles and were interested. But their interest is as nothing compared with the pleasure to be derived from seeing His Excellency in life in the Vitagraph picture of his trip, to be shown at the Gem Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday. It is a great picture. See it!

SIGNALING INSPECTION. In the Lower Cove Armory last evening the school of instruction in signaling was the scene of inspection by Captain Grant of the permanent force at Halifax which was pleased with the result and the efficiency shown by the men who had been instructed by Arthur J. Lindsay, sergeant instructor of No. 8 Signaling Section. The inspection will be closed this evening.

CUMBERLAND FIRST IN LINE

Amherst, April 12—Although the government bill in aid of county authority for the treatment of tuberculosis has not yet passed the committee stage, the municipality of the county of Cumberland is already anticipating its passage, and the prospects are that the county will be the first to take advantage of the act. A deputation from the Anti-Tuberculosis League waited upon the council and received an extremely sympathetic hearing. The council discussed the matter thoroughly and a strong committee headed by Warden Purdy was appointed to collect data, call for tenders, and generally inform themselves so as to report to a special meeting of the council which will probably be held, after the bill has passed.
