Scrives Lose To Marlers.

In a wild and woolly game of what commenced in stages to be hockey on Saturday night in the Arena, the gladiators from the Canadian Government Merchant Marine, Ltd., proved themselves too good for their opponents from the local newspapers and won by a score of 6 to 1 and two casualties to none. Connolly and Walsh, of the scrives, met the flying puck with parts of their anatomy undesigned for this purpose and are now endeavoring slowly to recover from the effects of their unconscious heroism. The marlers had a great advantage over their opponents on account of their sailing into and from foggy harbors and so were able to put up a better game in spite of the low visibility and frequent mirages seen about the rink.

The C. G. M. L. were represented by Murphy, Lomas, McPhee, LeBlanc, Parker, Dwyer and Jackson, while the newspaper men present were Connolly, Cahill, McGuire, Richard, Walsh, Thorne, McLeod and Lowe.
